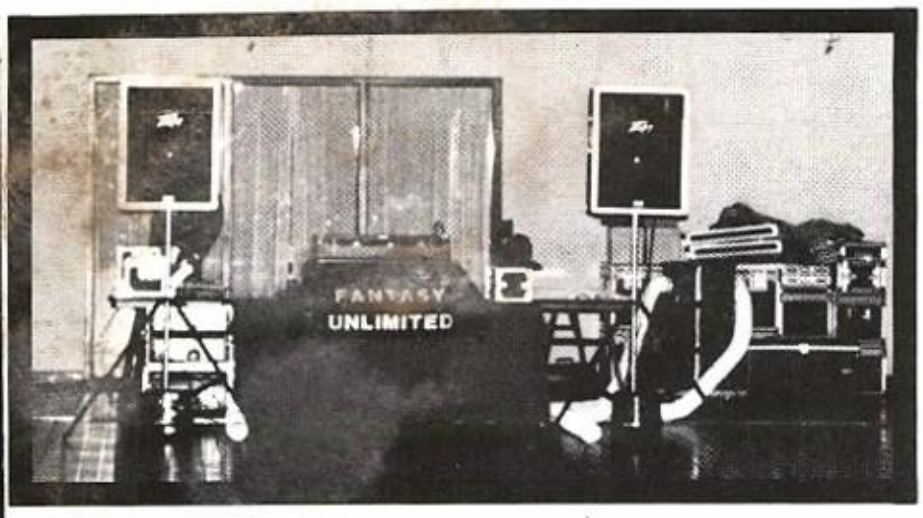
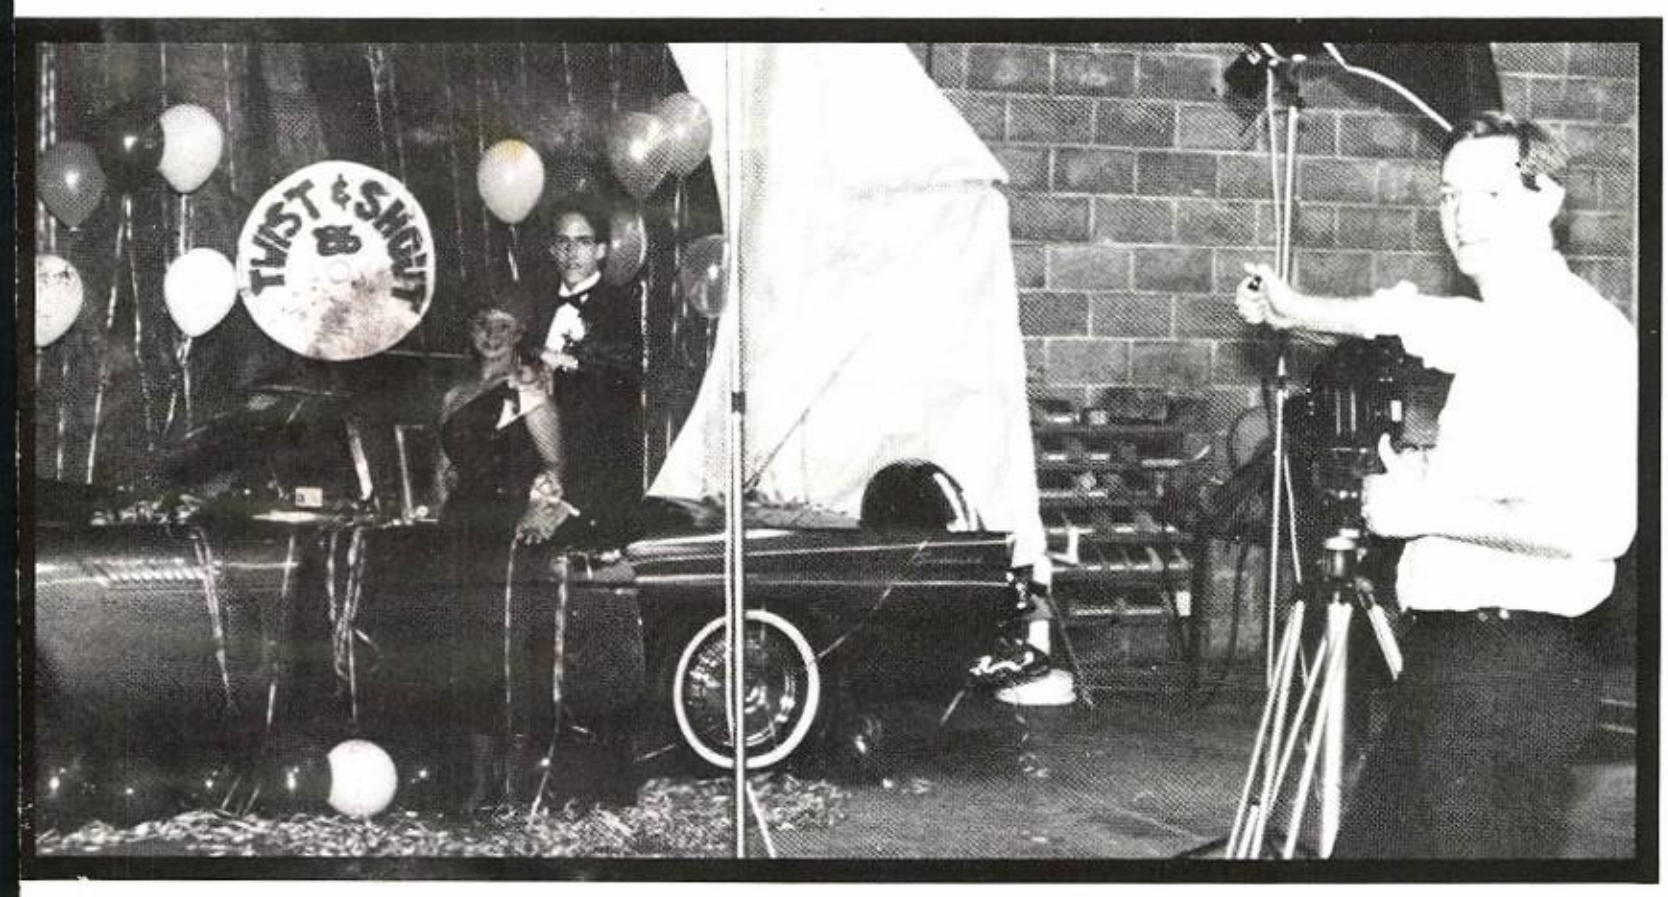
Homecoming '86

Homecoming week is very frantic for Student Council and other clubs at NHS. Student Council works hard toward organizing the week. The junior class handles mum sales and distribution. The week's activities include a duchess assembly on Tuesday. Before the homecoming game on Friday each girl was recognized and the queen and runners-up were announced. A semi-formal dance was held on the following night and the homecoming court was presented. "Twist and Shout," by the Beatles, a popular song today as well as in the 1960's, was chosen by the Student Council as the homecoming theme. Decorations were furnished by the Student Council and the music was provided by "Fantasy Unlimited."

1. Homecoming queen, Laura Garrett and her escort Jeff Sullivan. 2. 2nd runner-up, Robin Pantalion escorted by Stephen Saunders, homecoming queen Laura Garrett escorted by Jeff Sullivan and 1st runner-up Cheryl Woodson escorted by Aundre' Howard.

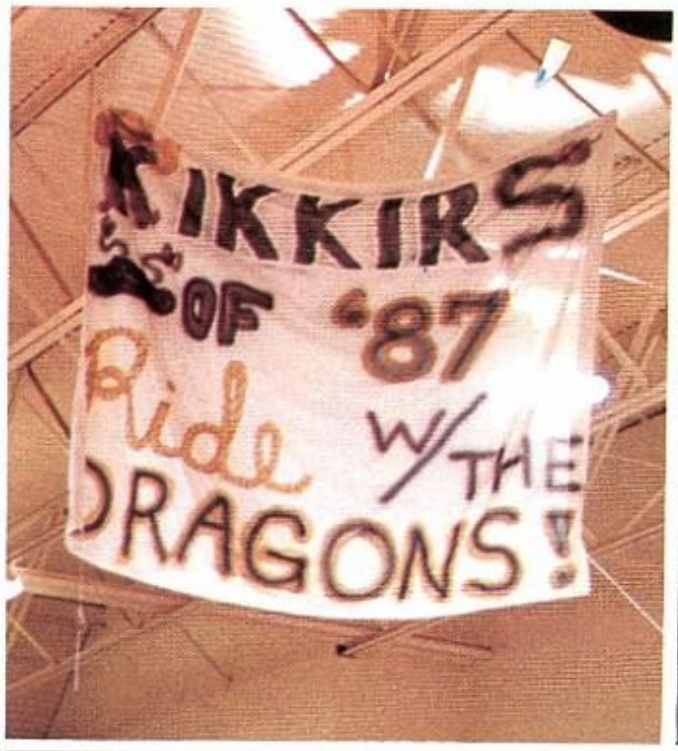
"Twist and Shout"



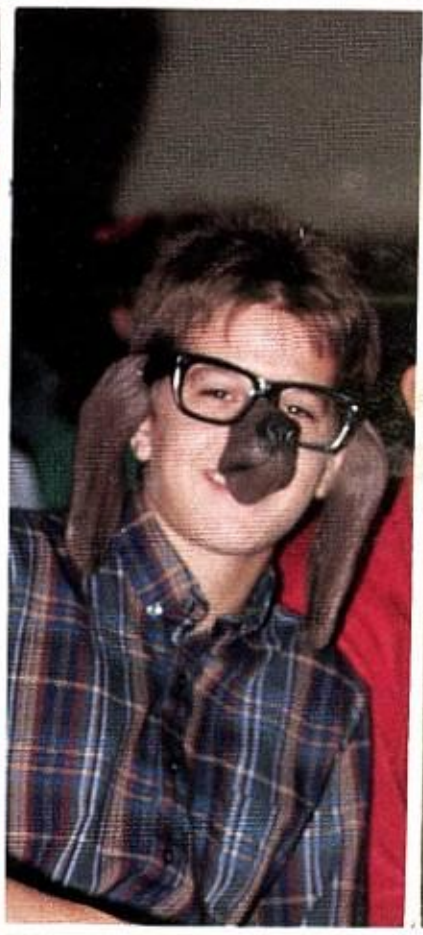


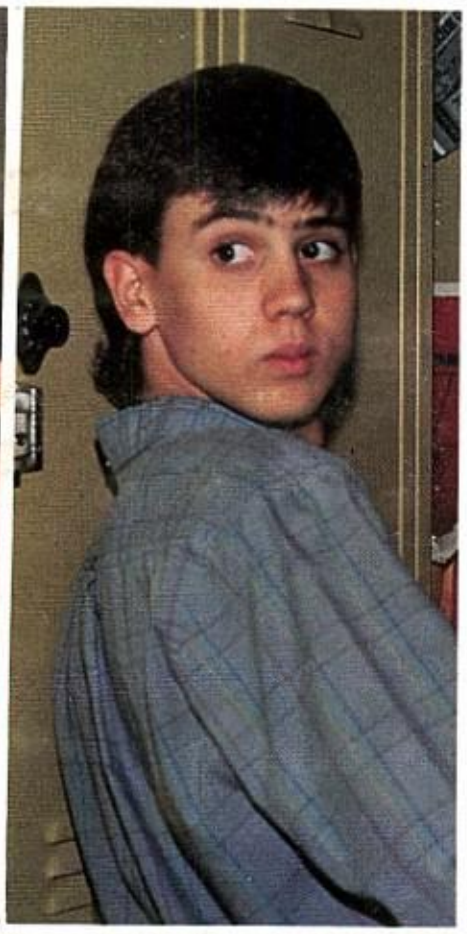
1. "Fantasy Unlimited" provided the music and a light show at the semi-formal dance held Saturday night of homecoming week. 2. NHS students "Twist and Shout " the night away. 3. Todd Puffer and his date enjoy themselves to a slow dance. 4. Derron Wood and Jennifer McGarity pose for their homecoming picture taken by Craig Ludrick.

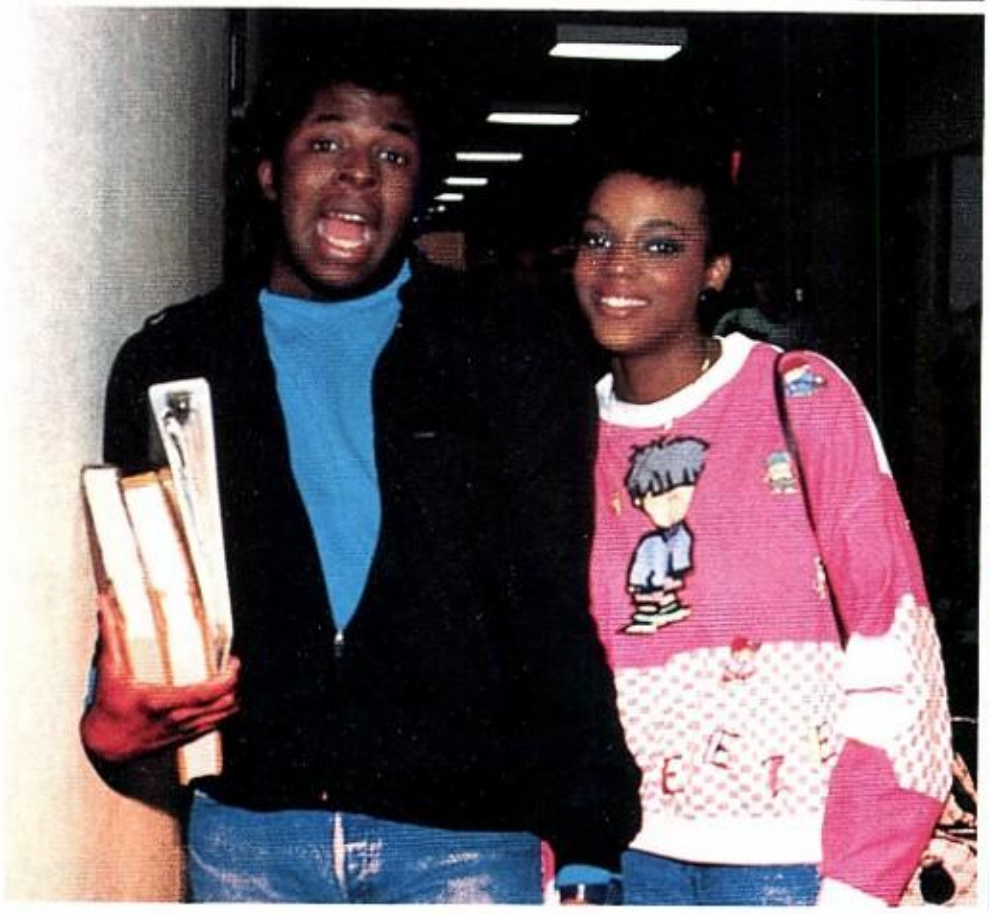
Scenes Around Nacogdoches High

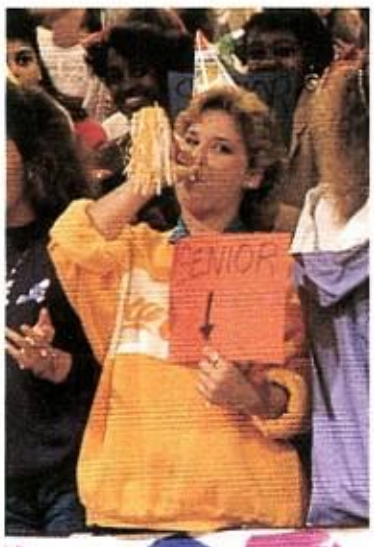


1. Kikkers support the Dragons. 2. Leslie Armsworth shows school spirit. 3. Seniors Sarah Oliver and Charles Lehmann concentrate on their art assignments. 4. Chad Frances looks like a dog. 5. Senior Donny Barlow gets caught by the camera. 6. Tommy Bucherie, take those shades off! 7. Stephanie Johnson and Rodney Tutt stroll toward their classes.

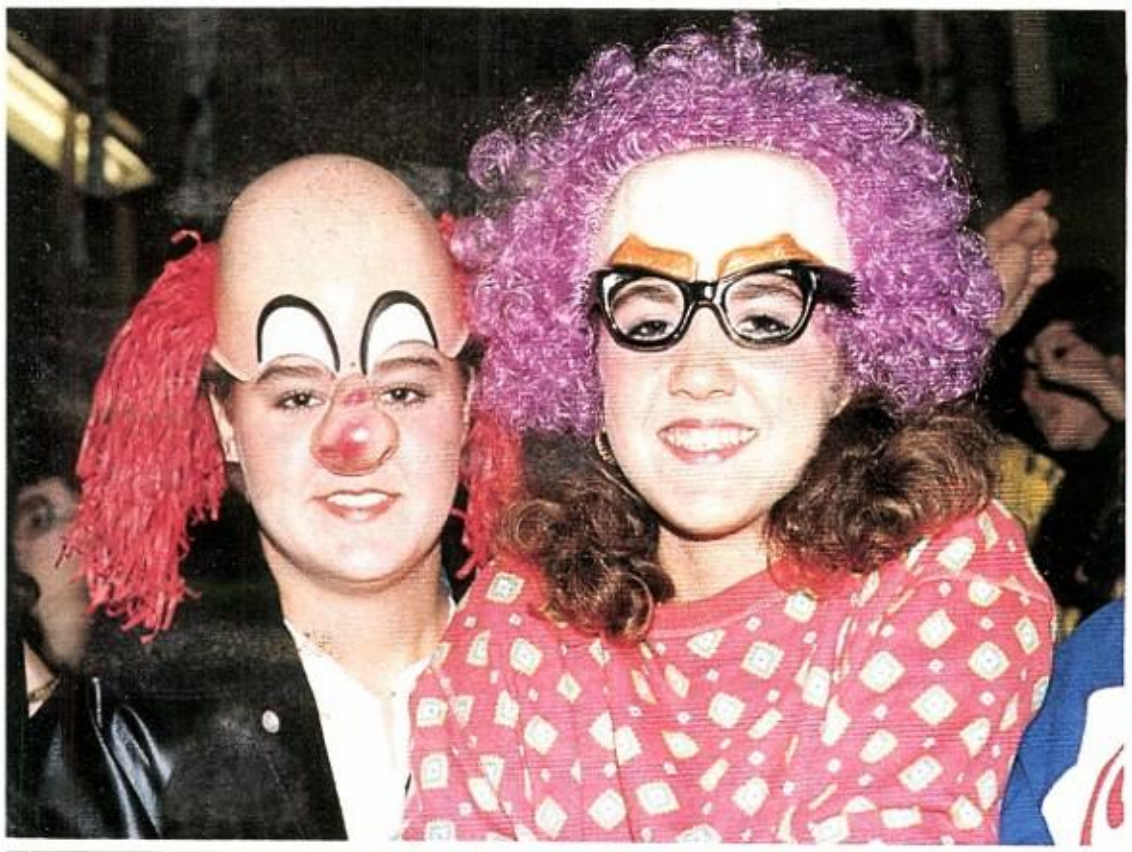


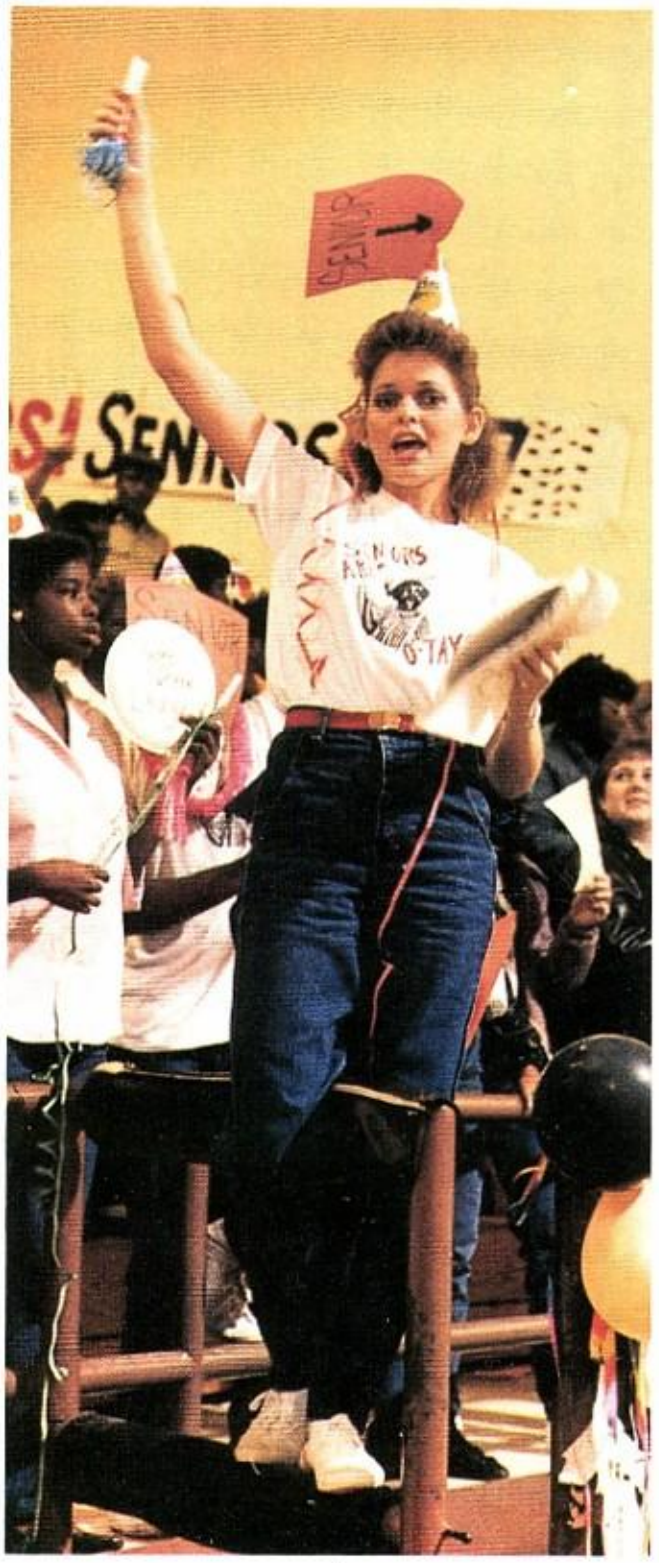


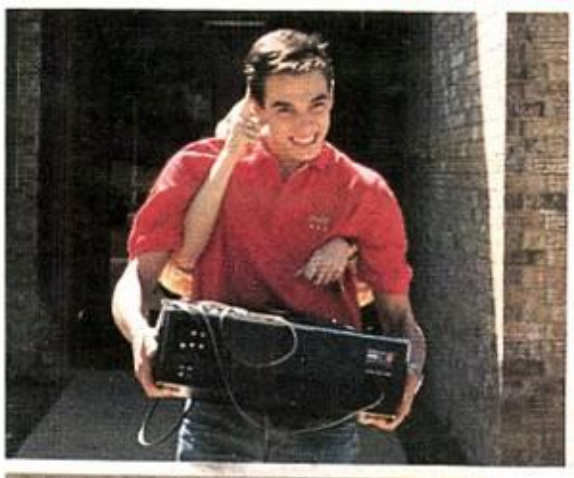


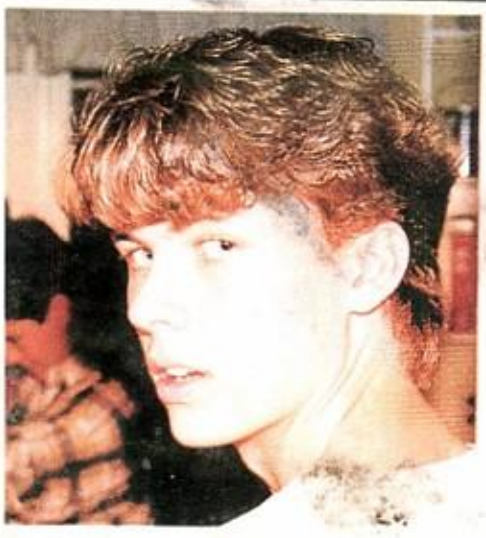


1. Pan Am's Pig. 2. Senior Tiffany McLaughlin shows her spirit for the Dragons 3. Juniors.Bridgette Reynolds and Jamie Earley dress up for Halloween pep rally. 4. Senior Belinda Lucas was voted most school spirit. 5. Who's behind Thane Erwin? 6. Sholanda Forney looks like she is practicing for a toothpaste commercial. 7. Kelly Jones is looking surprised.

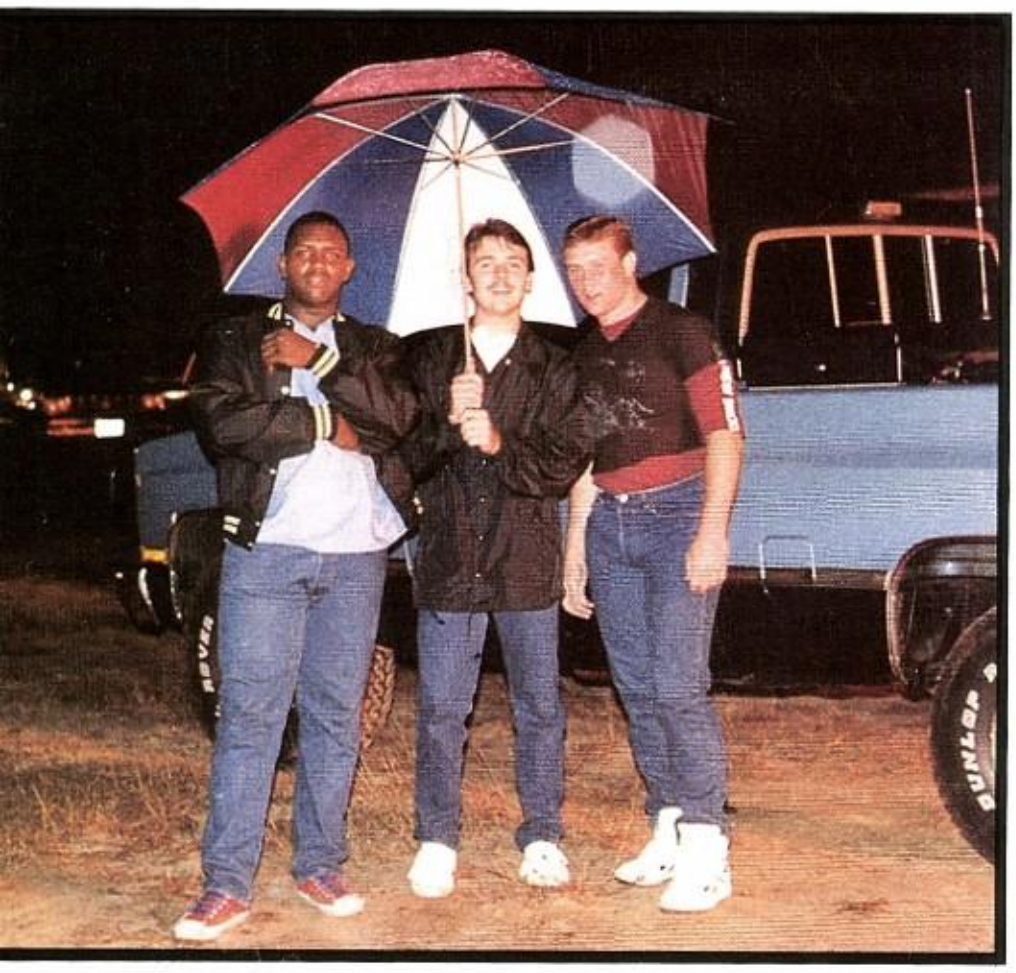


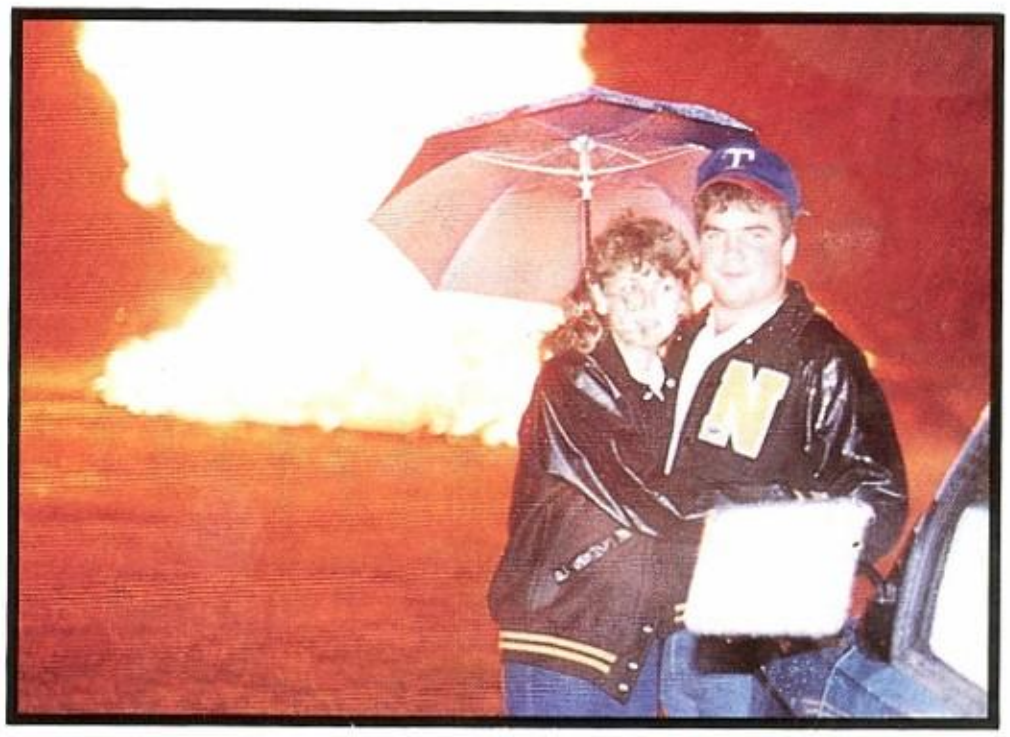






Srs. Make Sure Bonfire Blazes . . . Despite Rain

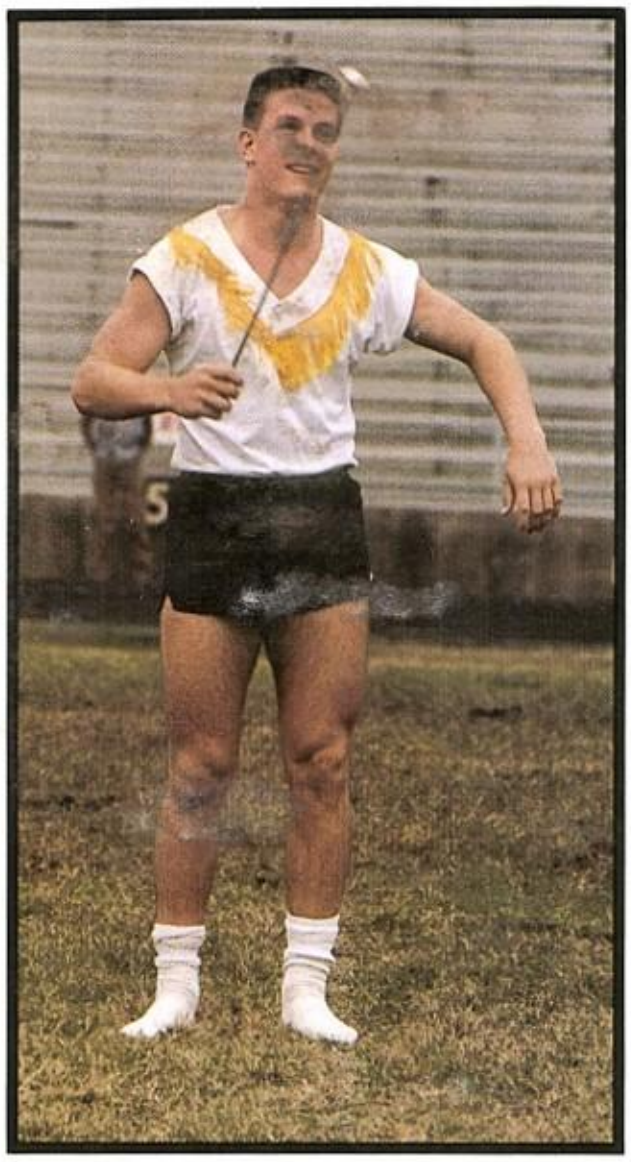


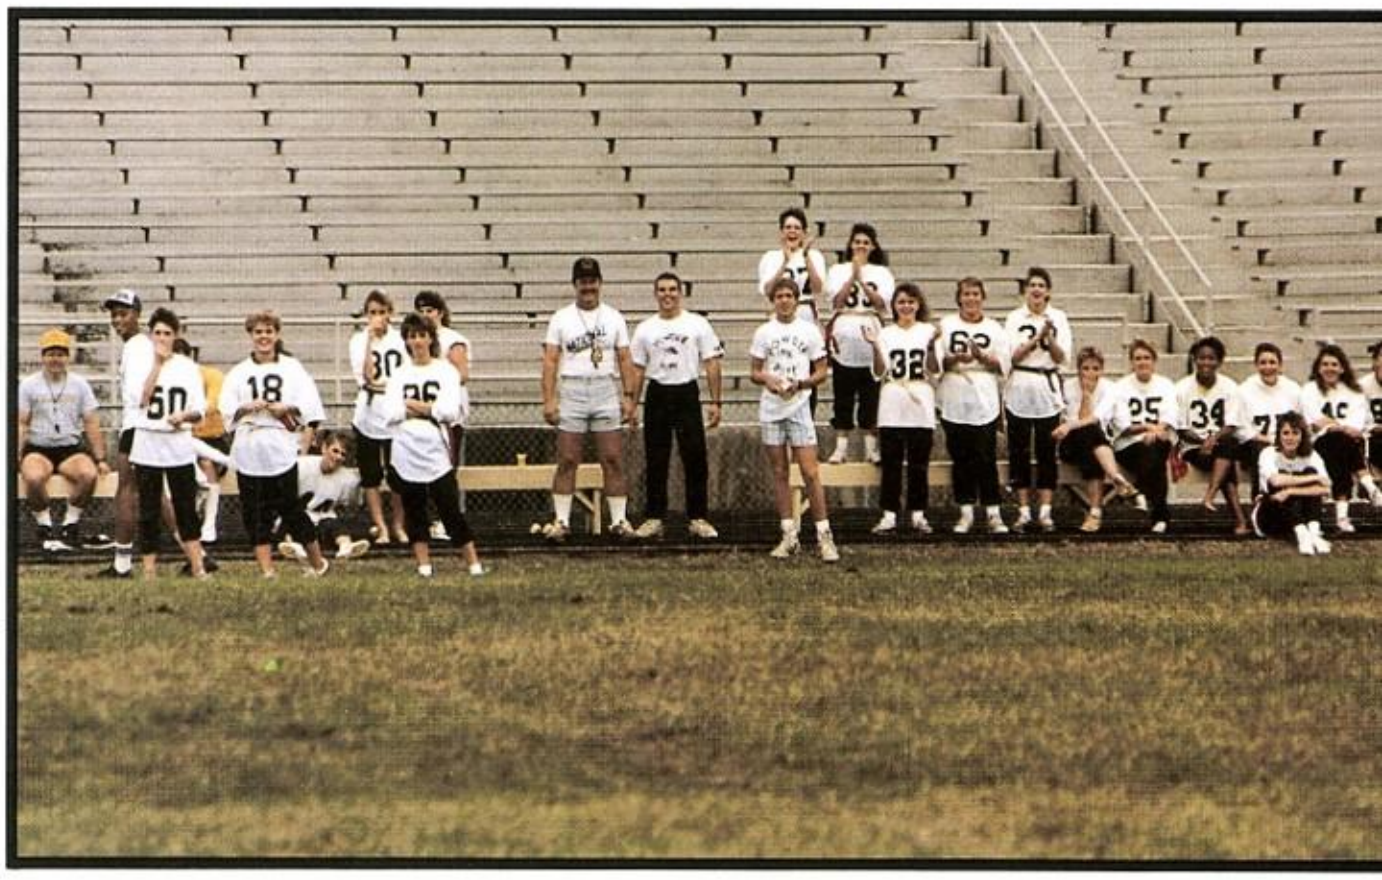


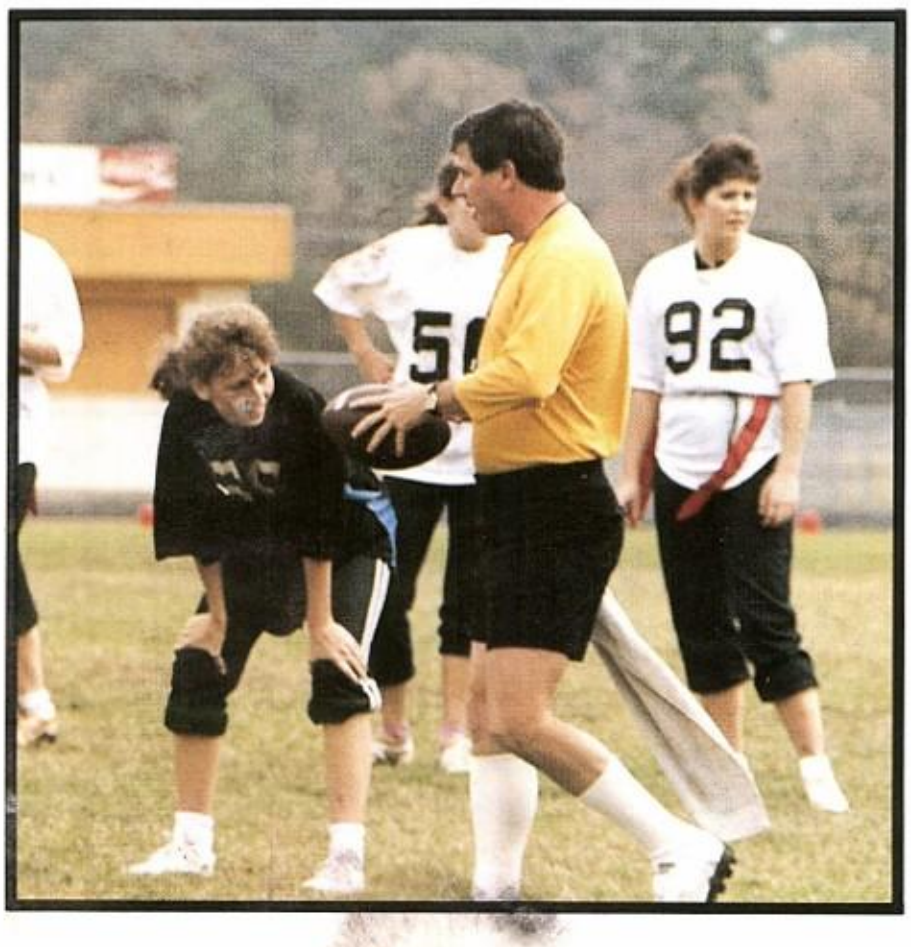
A bonfire was held to psyche up the students for the oldest rivalry between Nacogdoches and Lufkin. In spite of the rain the seniors still proceeded with the building and lighting of the '86 bonfire.

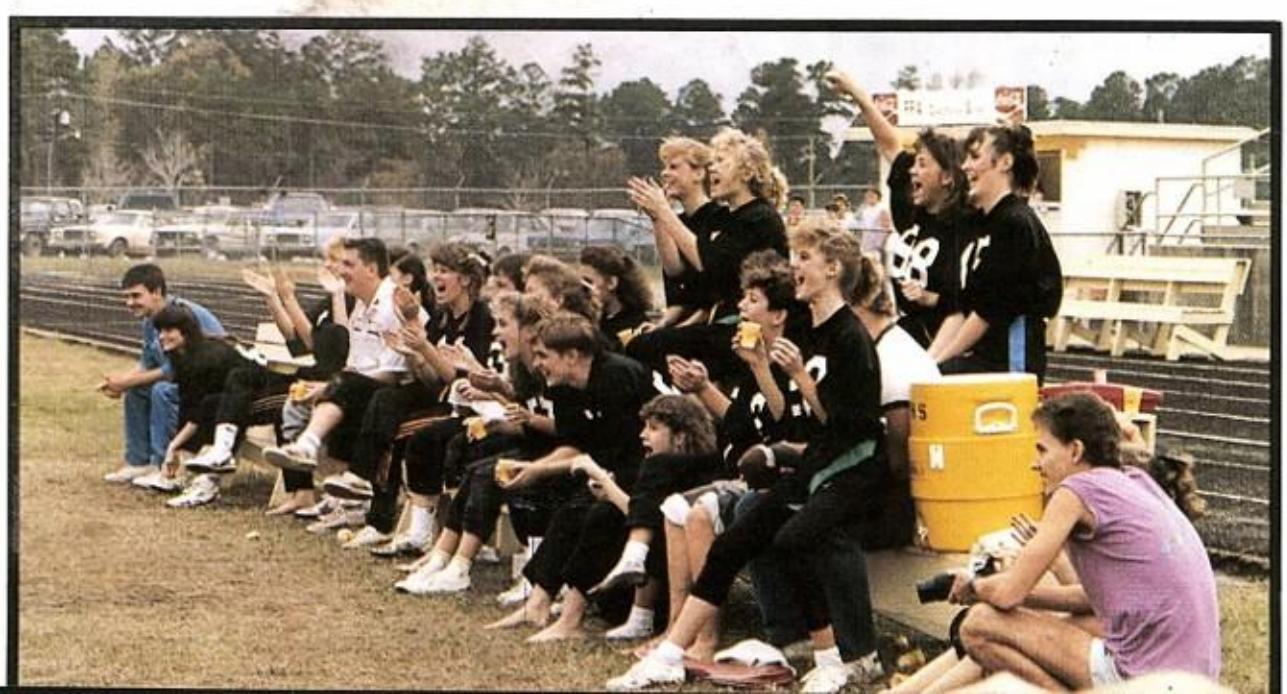
1. Senior football players had a hard time lighting the fire due to the rain, but the Dragons' belief is "Together we stand, Divided we fall, Mighty Dragons will conquer all." With this in mind the fire soon blazed. 2. It takes a big umbrella to hide Mervin Jones, Ty McCarty, and John Green, from the pouring rain. 3. Lori Graves and James Butler avoiding the heat of the blazing fire. 4. Dayna Goodroe assists the Seniors in the building of the bonfire.

Powder Puff '86
Juniors vs. Seniors





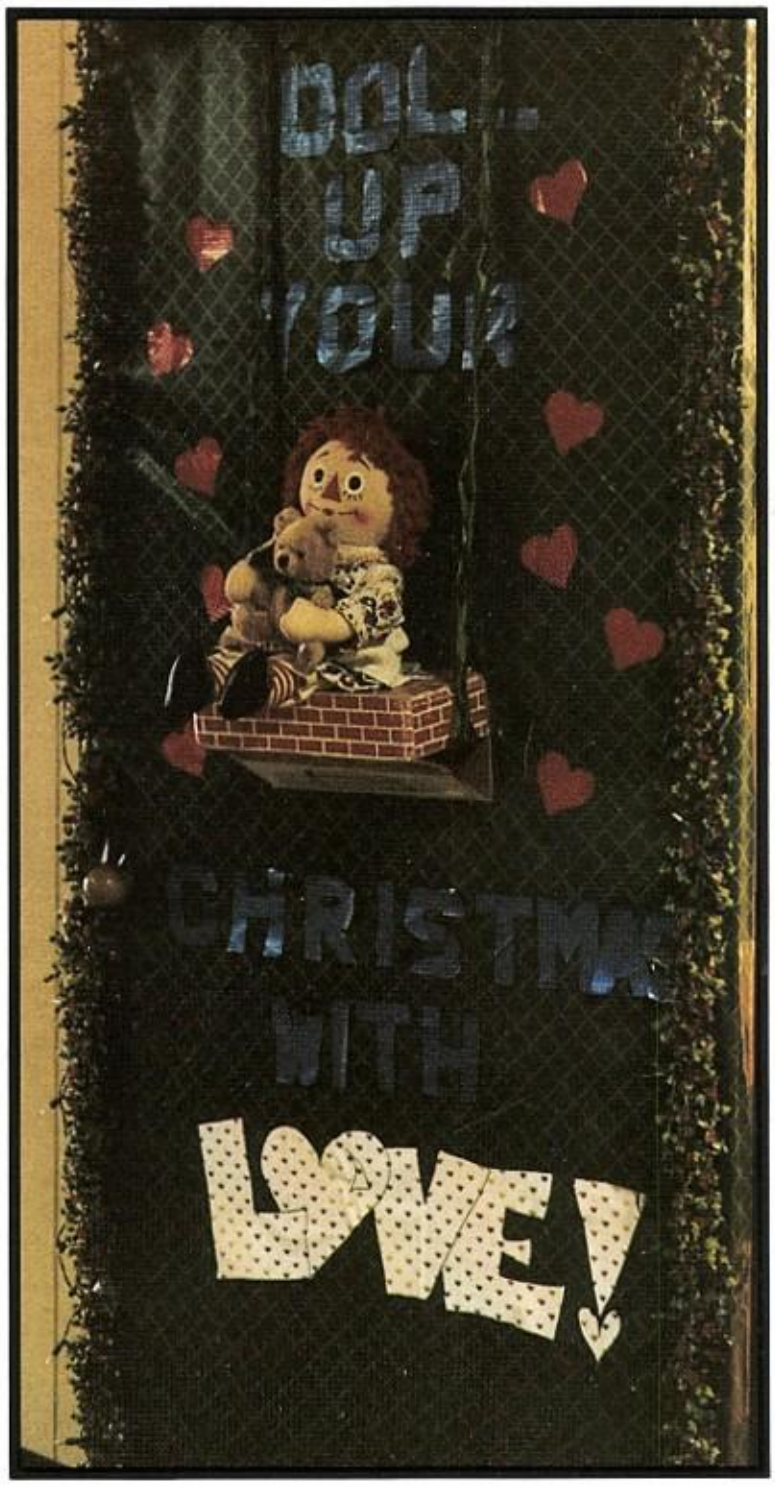


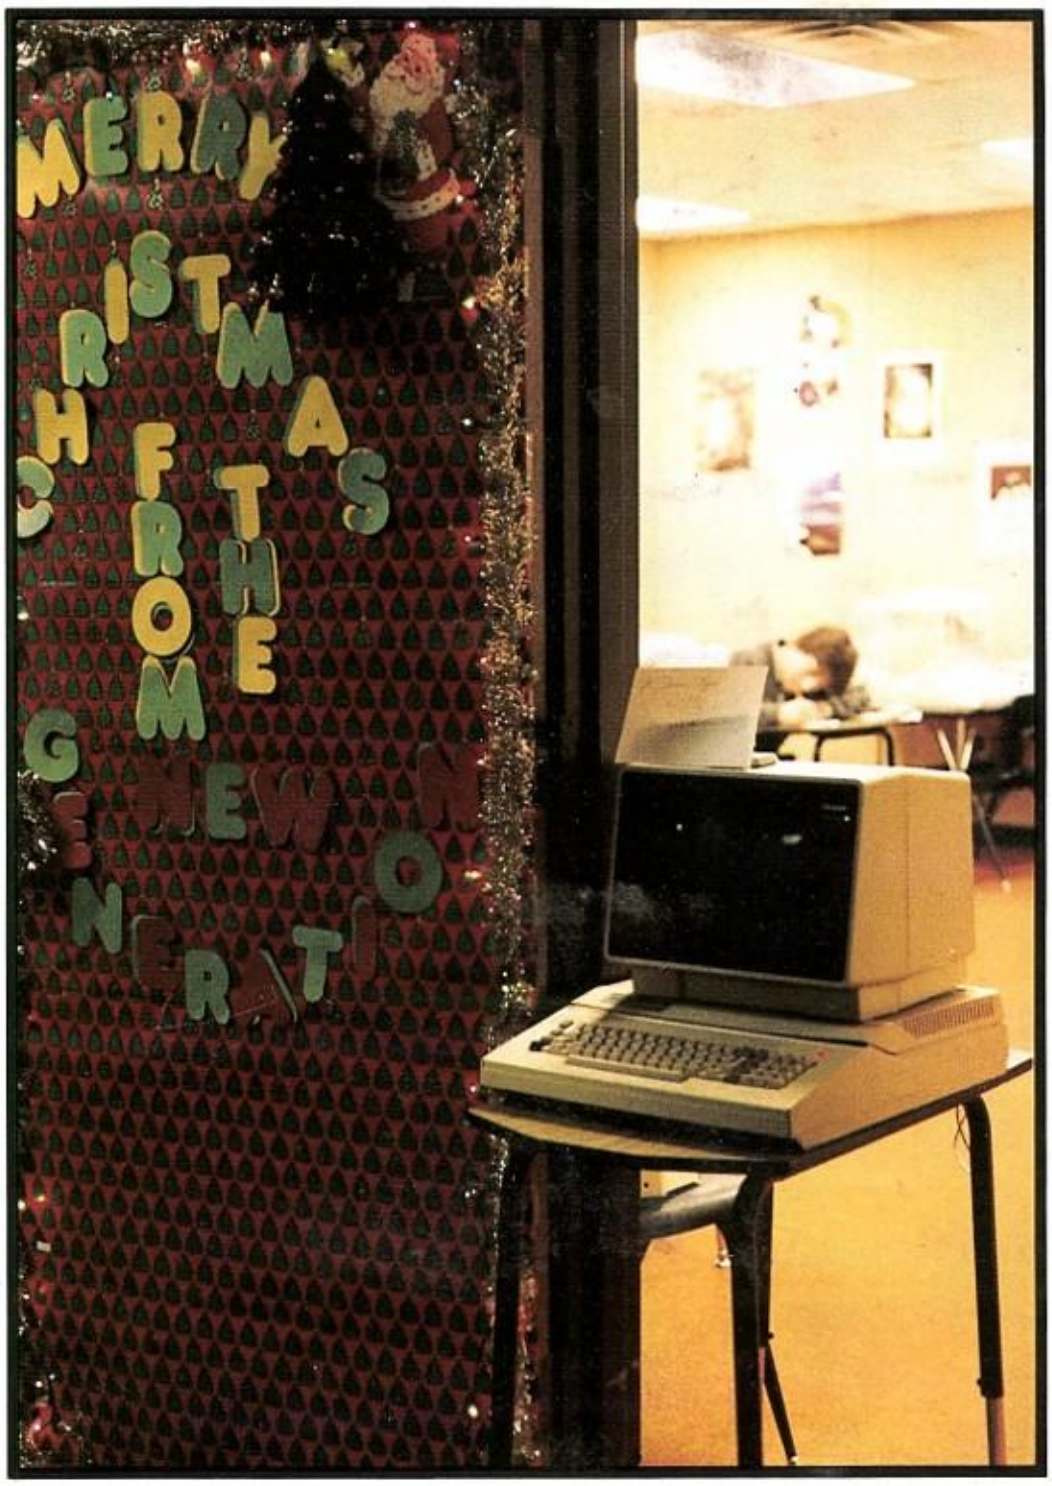


Girls' Fellowship of Christian Athletes sponsored the annual junior/senior Powder Puff Game in December. Juniors defeated the seniors 6-0. An after-game fellowship was held at Pecan Acres park.

1. Dan Debenport provided halftime entertainment at the Girls' FCA annual Powder Puff game. 2. Juniors cheered on their defensive team from the sidelines. 3. Coach Bobby Reyes, Powder Puff referee, showed his favortism by calling numerous penalties against the seniors. 4. Seniors and coaches plan their strategy, but to no avail. The juniors won 6-0. 5. Seniors were entertained with Dan Dabenport's halftime performance.

Door Decorations

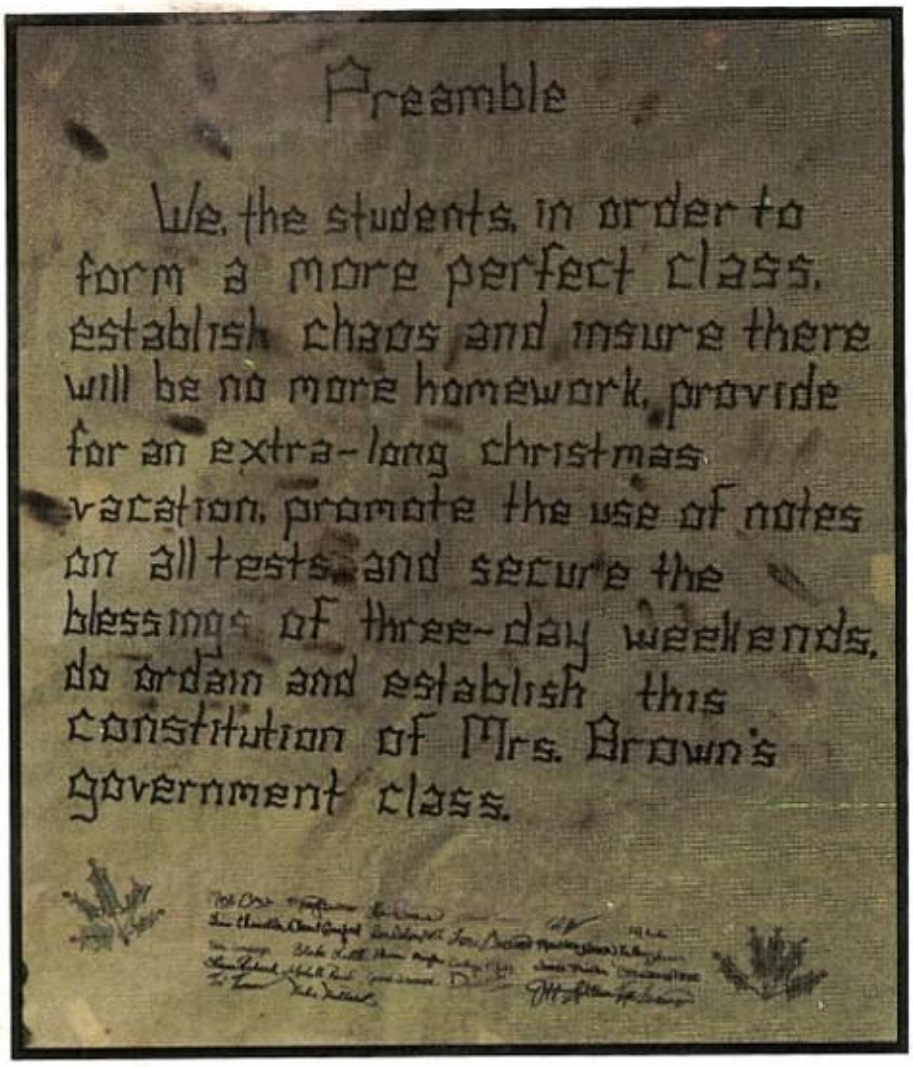




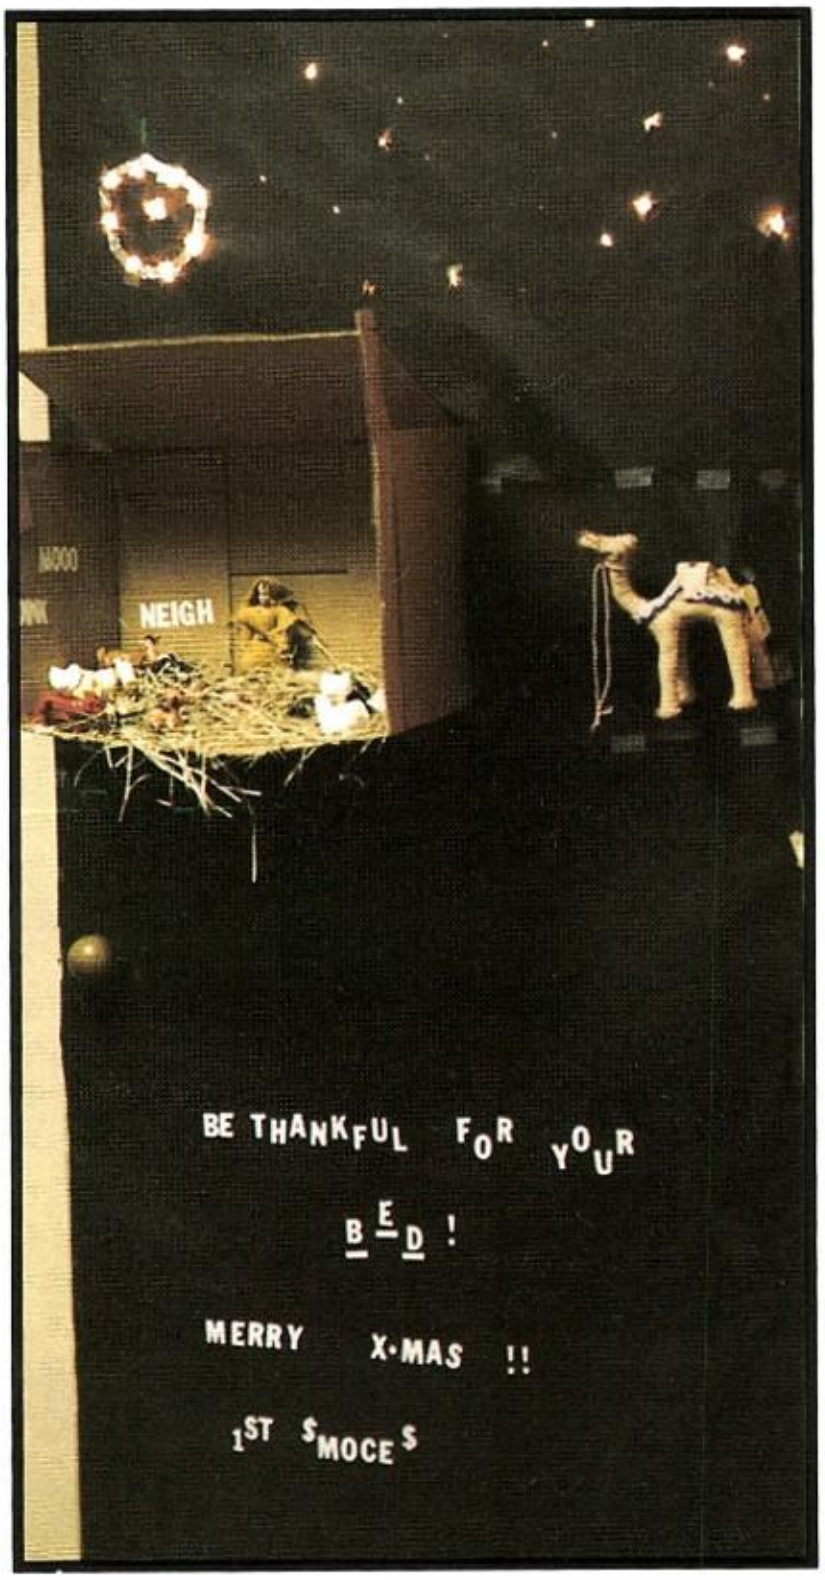
The NHS Student Council sponsored its annual door decorating contest. First period classes were encouraged to decorate their doors for the Christmas season. Judges for the contest were Mrs. Jane Green and Mrs. Elaine Burgess.

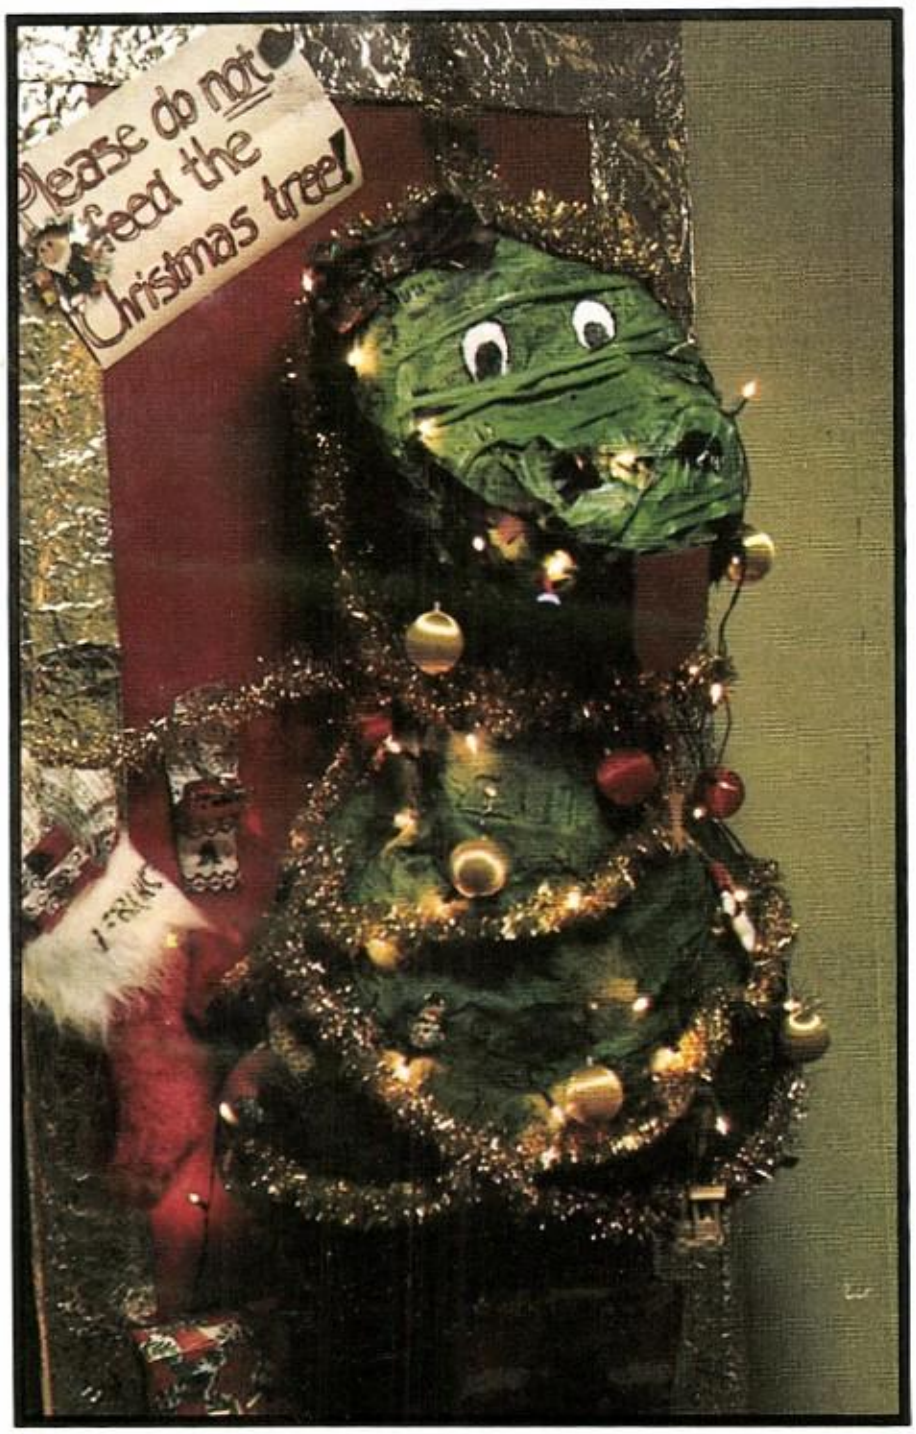
"Best All Around Door" was awarded to Mrs. Vicky Lymbery's class. "Originality" was won by Mrs. Julie Davis' data processing class.

Christmas 1987



Preamble
We, the students, in order to form a more perfect class, establish chaos and insure there will be no more homework, provide for an extra-long christmas vacation, promote the use of notes on all tests, and secure the blessings of three-day weekends, do ordain and establish this constitution of Mrs. Brown's government class.





Mrs. Claudette Brown's government class won the "Most Unique Door." Coach Bobby Reyes' math class was awarded the "Spirit of Christmas." The "Creativity" prize was awarded to the English IH class of Mrs. Mary Beth Hagood.

The Curious Savage" cast and crew did a great deal of aveling this year. They advanced through zone, district, ea and competed in region before it was all over. This as the first time in the history of NHS that the one-act ay advanced past area. Even though the play did not ad- nce at region, several cast members received individual vards. The students who worked together through the rious phases of competition felt a special closeness that n only come through many hours of hard work and operation.

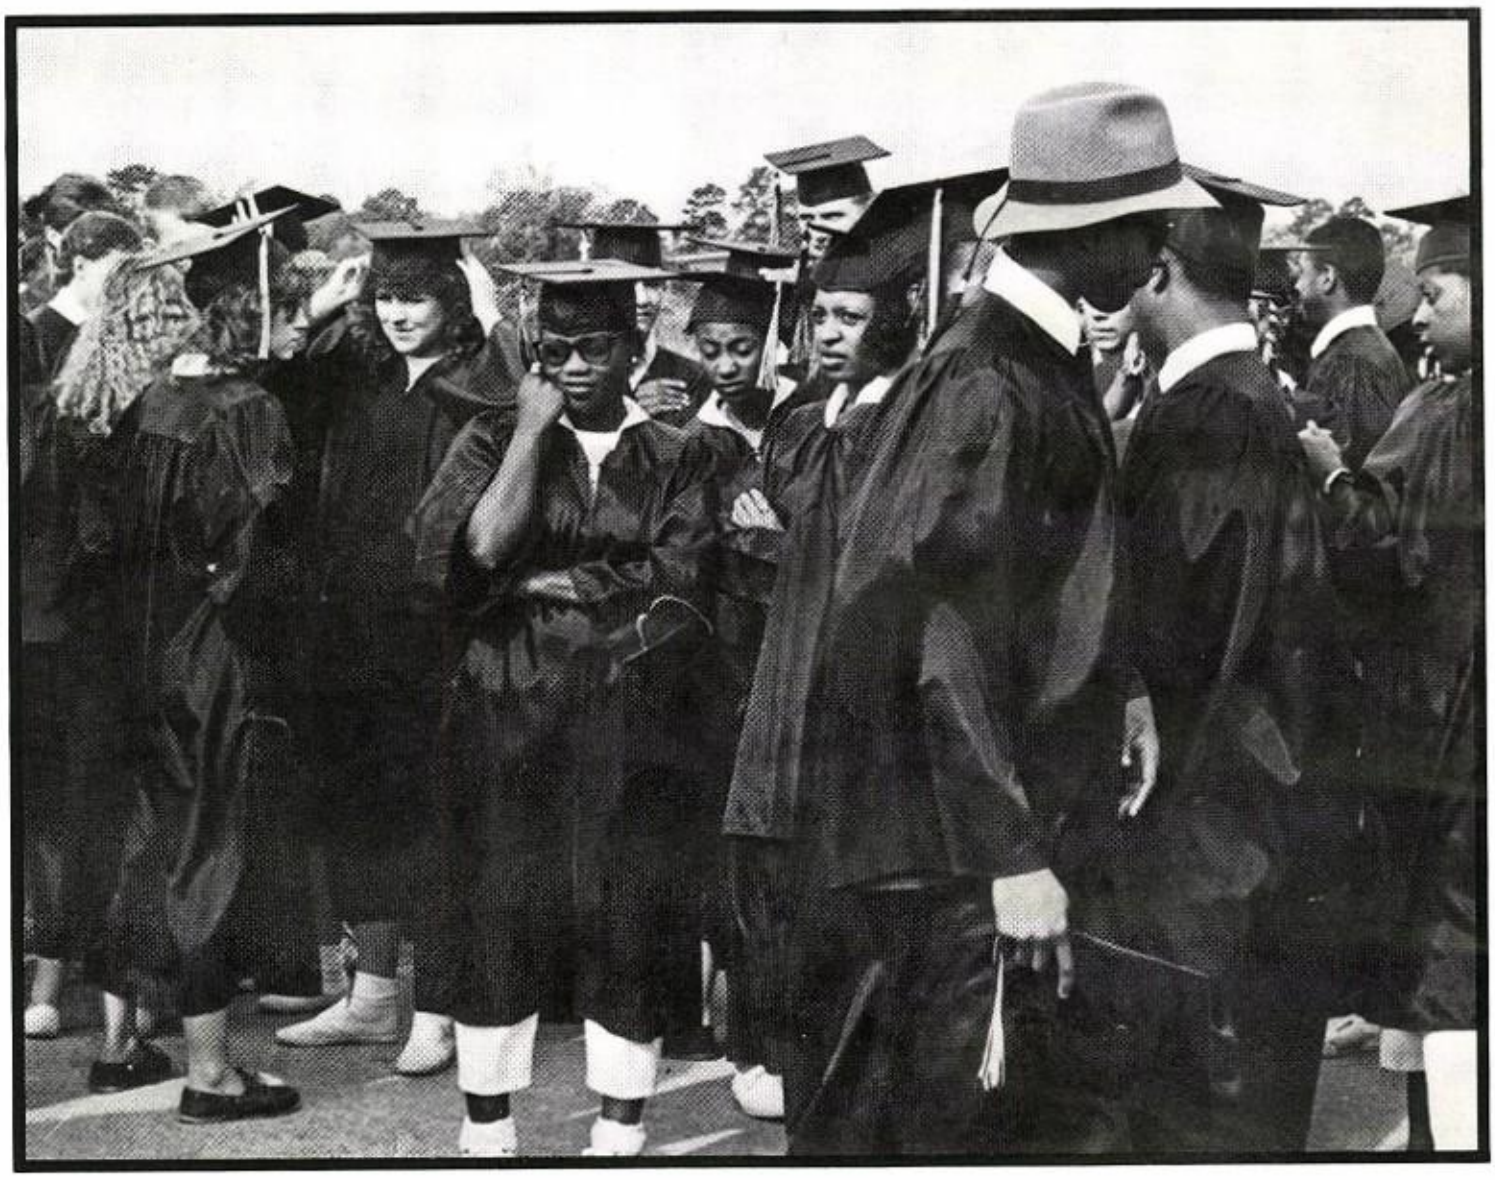
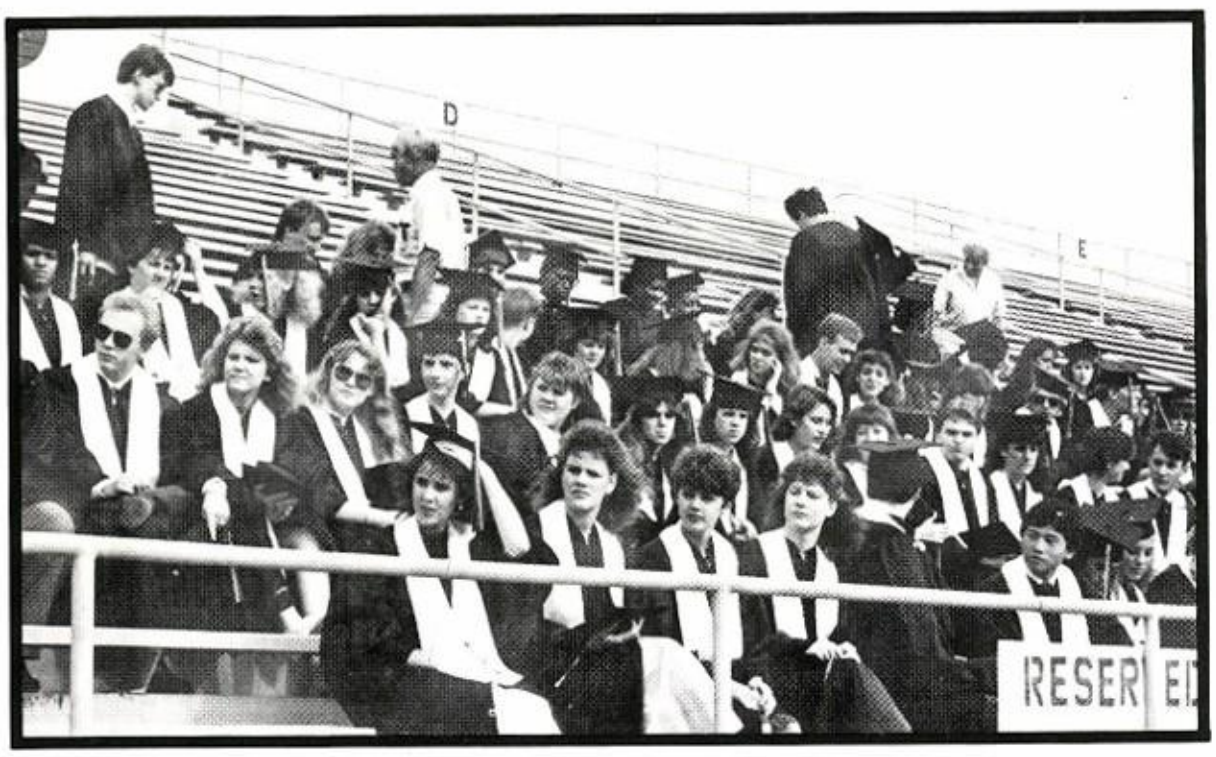
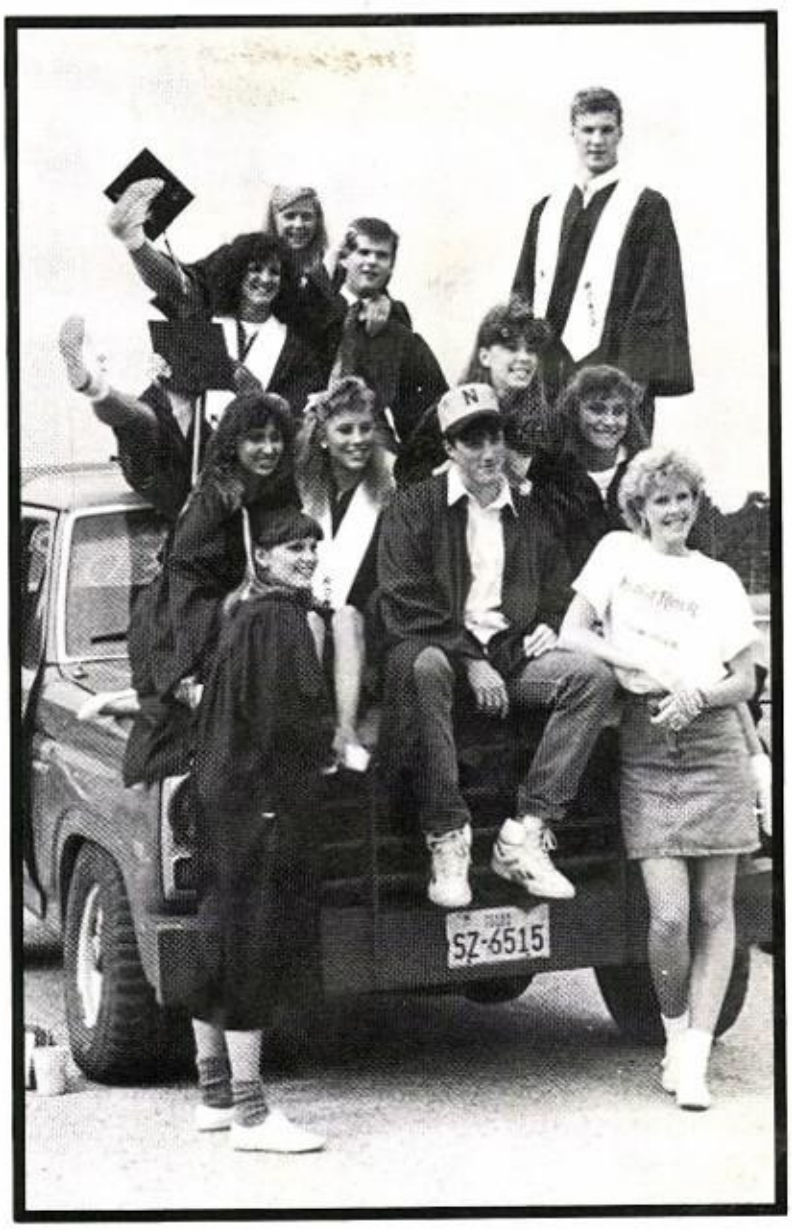
Getting Ready

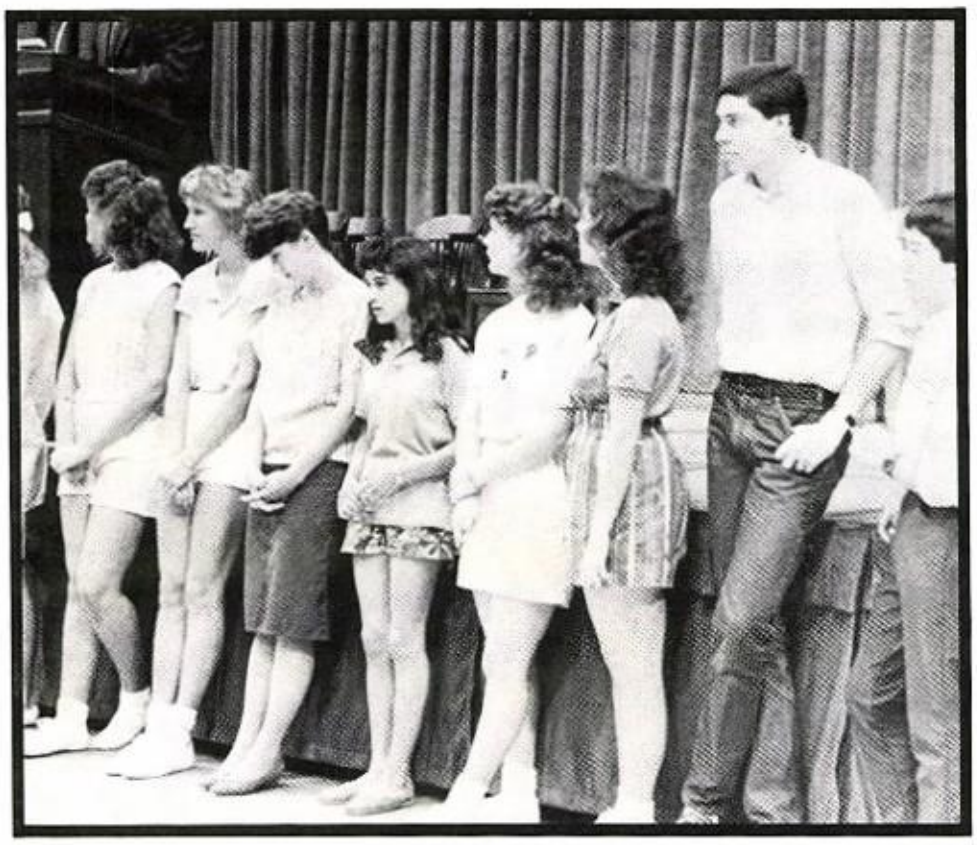


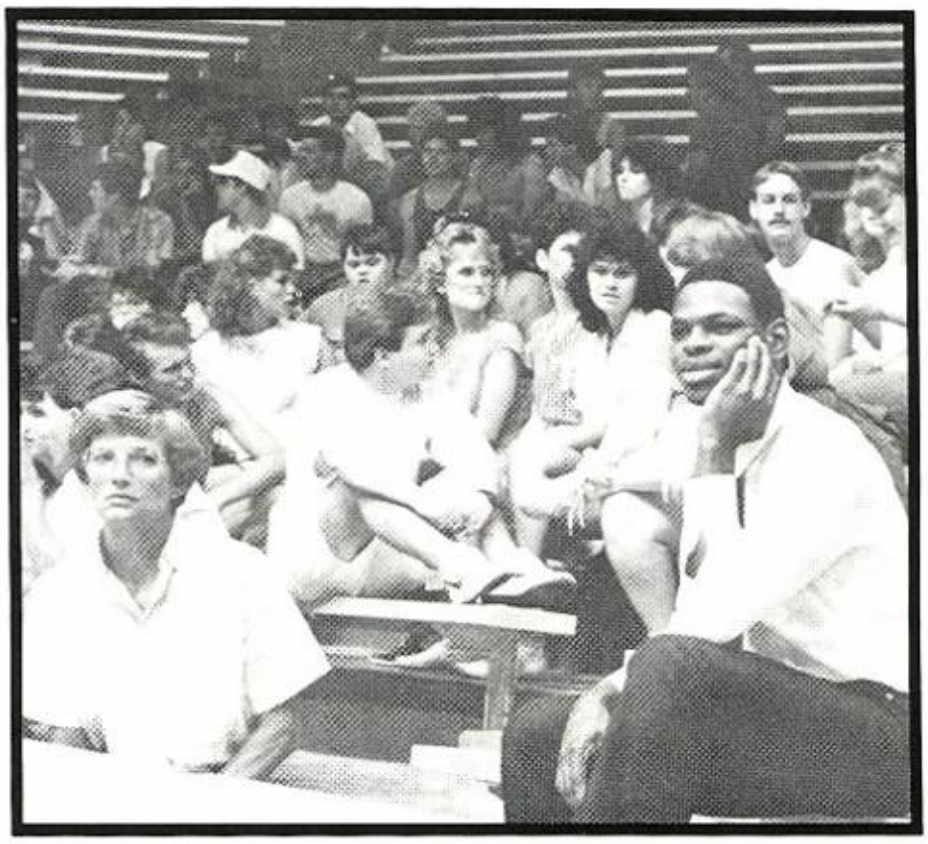


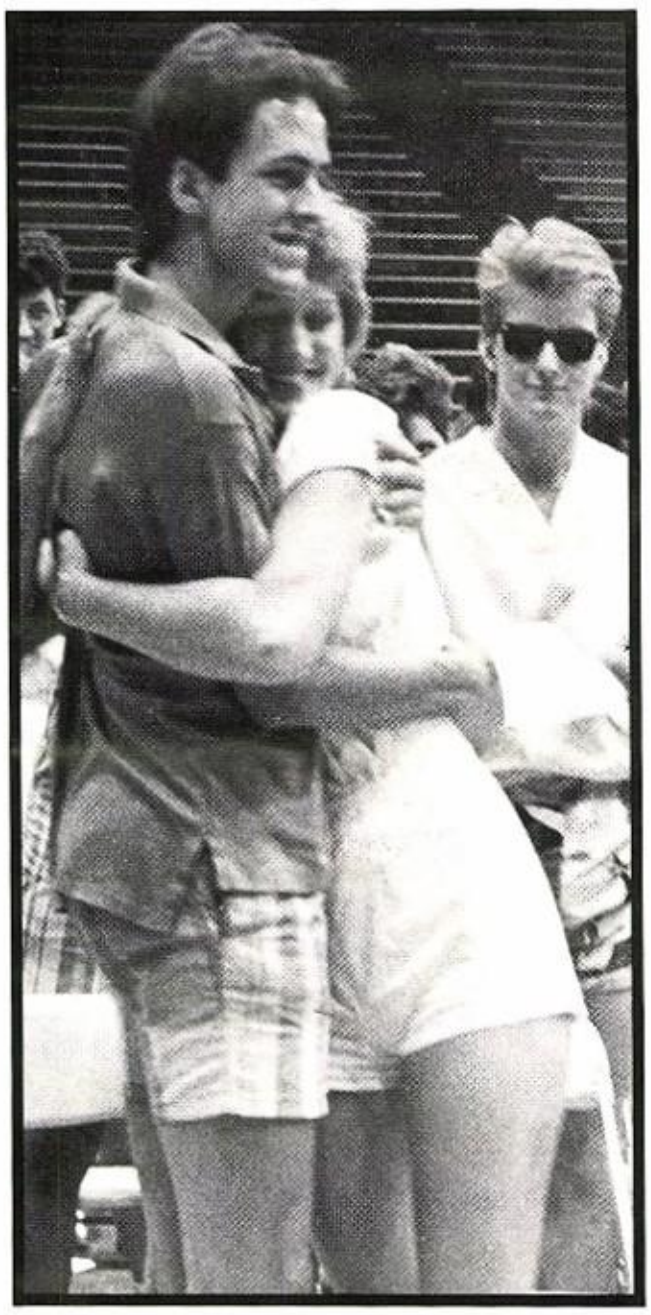


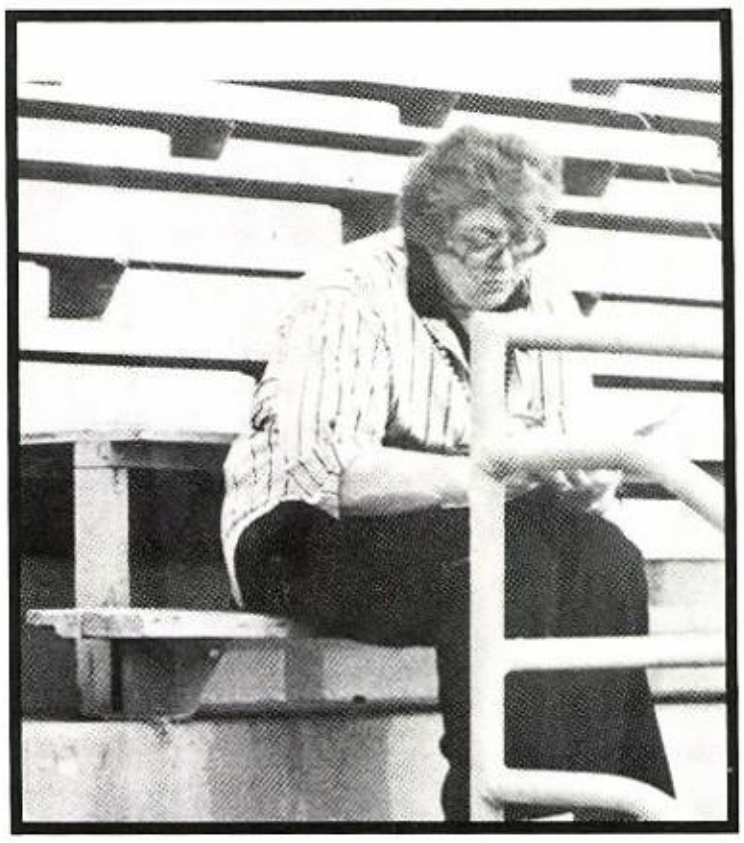
The last day of school for the 1987 seniors was spent preparing for the big night — graduation. Students gathered at Dragon Stadium at 8:30 a.m. for the senior group picture. Then it was off to the coliseum for rehearsal.

Graduation Rehearsal



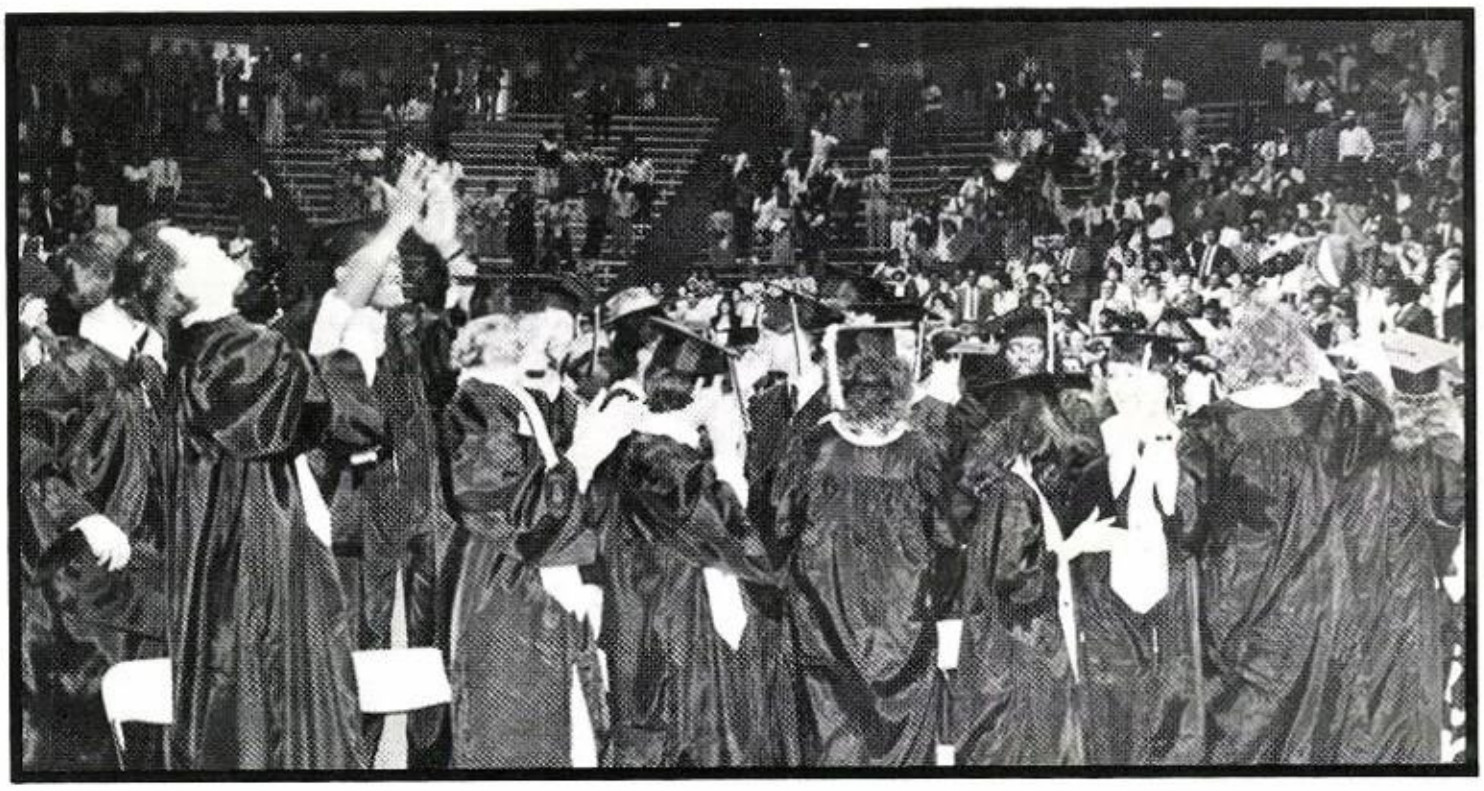


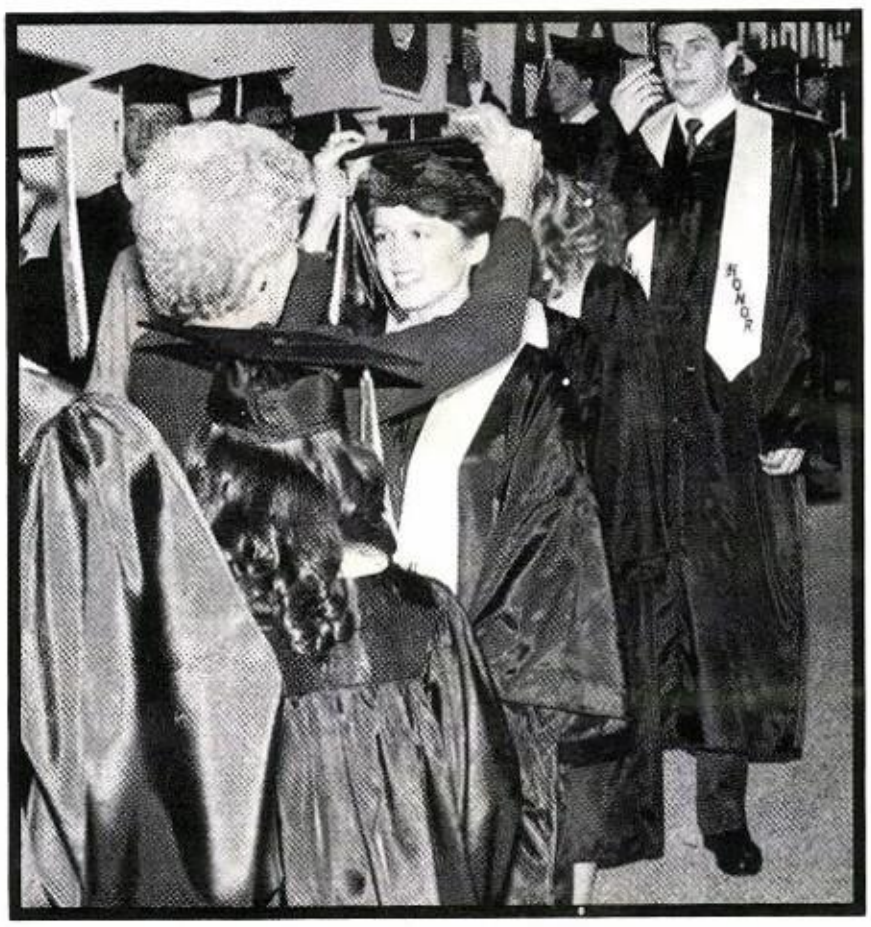




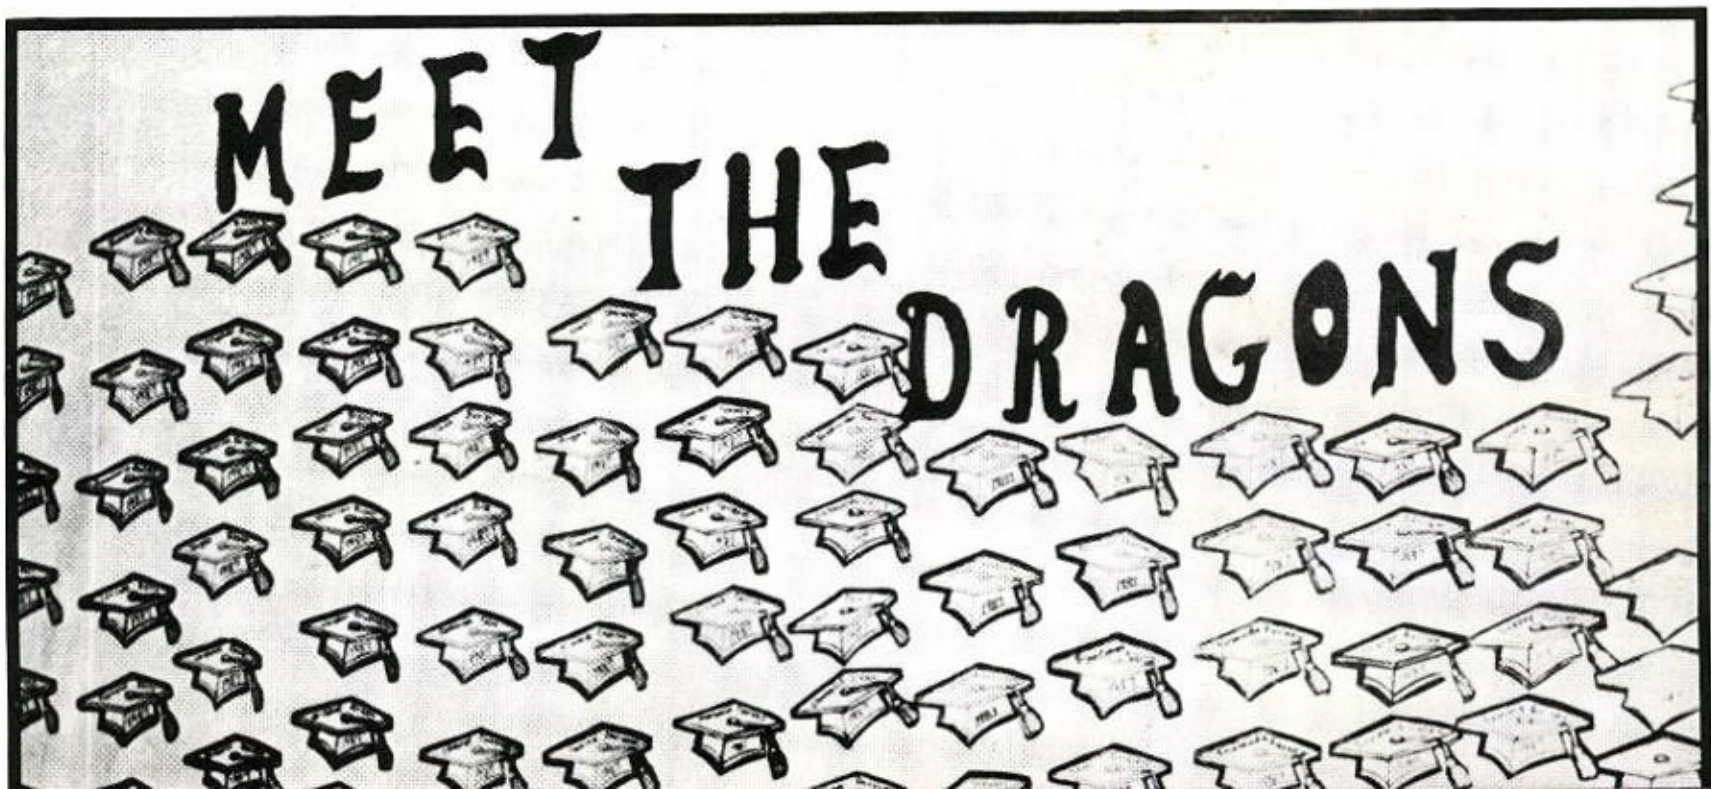
1. Top ten students await to see who will be valedictorian. 2. Seniors relax in the stands at the coliseum until Mr. Walker gives them further instructions. 3. Jessica Vandrovec class salutatorian gives Deron Wood class valedictorian a big hug of congratulations. 4. Senior singers practice the class song in preparation for graduation night. 5. Mrs. Amy Patterson grades final exams in the stadium while supervising the class picture.

Graduation Night . . .

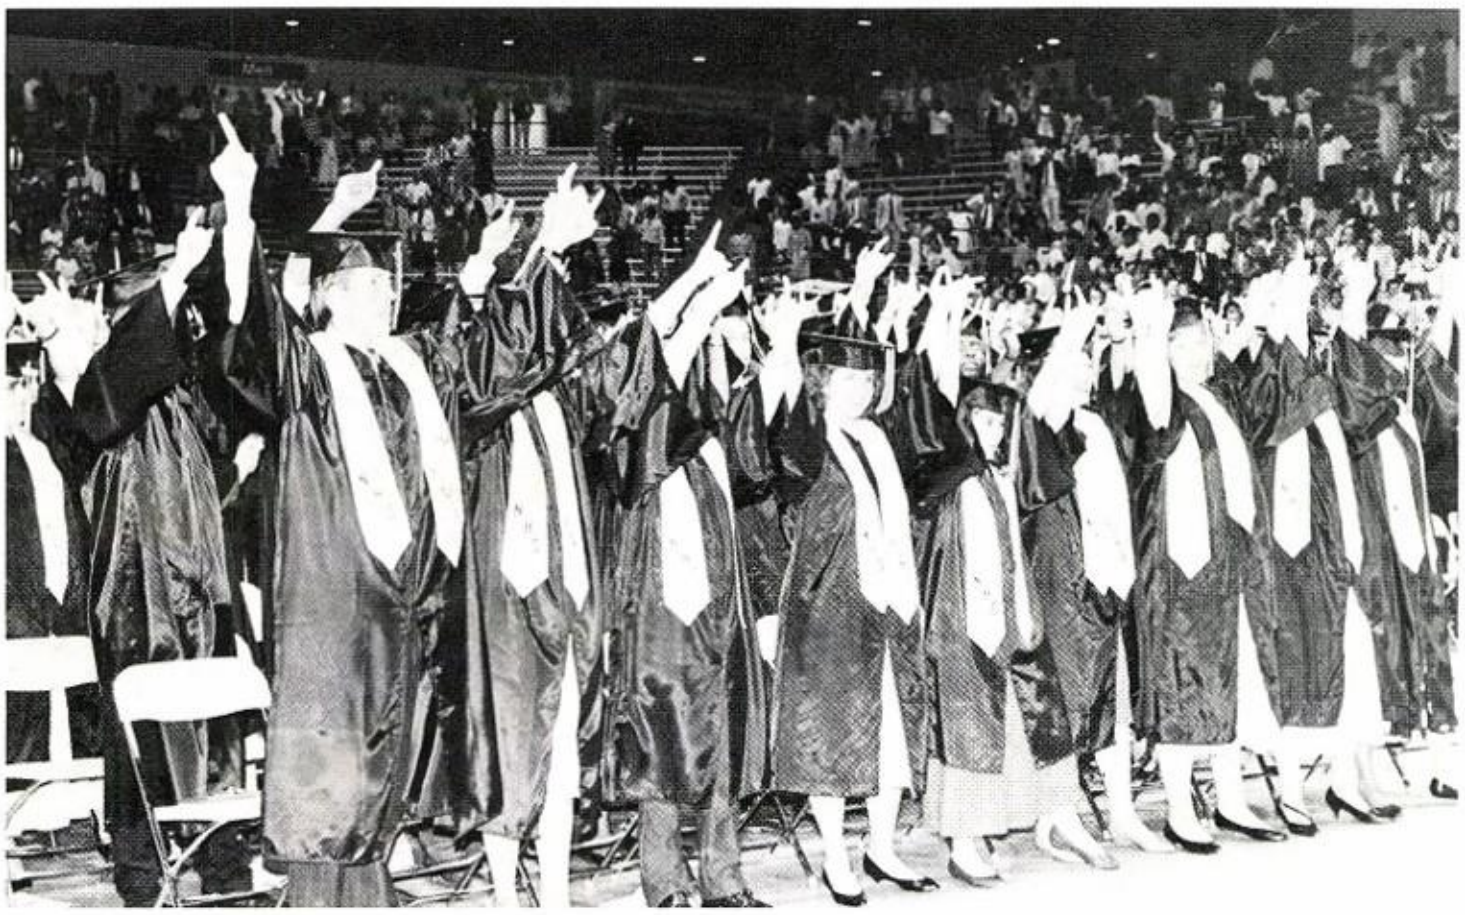


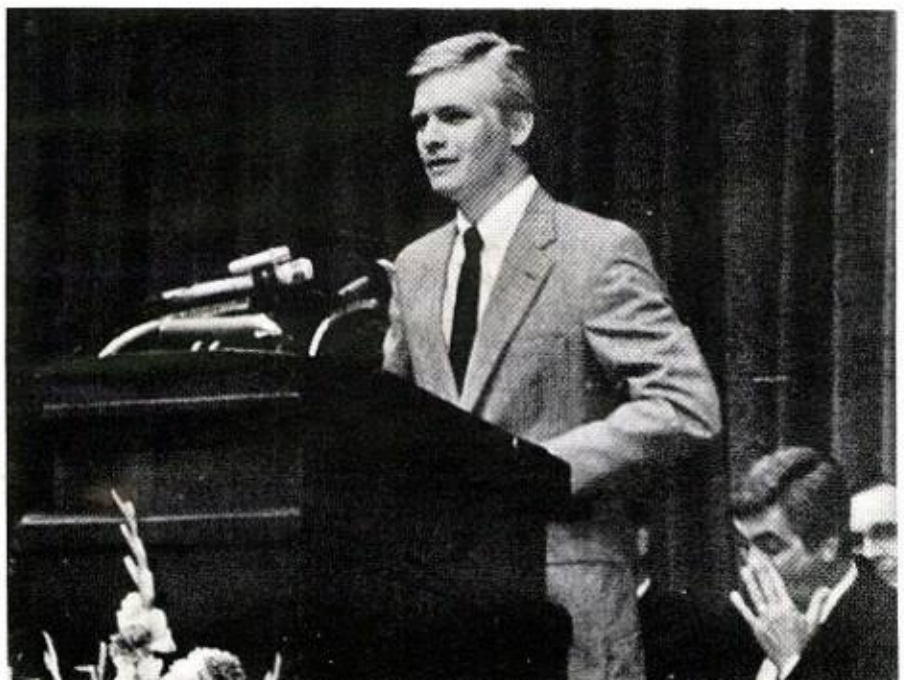


1.Throwing your hat at graduation is a big tradition for NHS graduating seniors. 2.Seniors '87 are #1 in the eyes of many. 3.Mrs. Jaye Jean Stewart shows students the scholarly way to wear the graduation hats. 4.Student Council displays graduating seniors on the "Meet the Dragons" bulletin board during the last week of school.



We Finally Made It!





1.Seniors raise the #1 sign as they sing the Alma Mater. 2.Lori Graves, Denise Bradley, Tracy Chandler, Ginny Thomas, Janna Schoenrock,and Amee Anson all show how happy they are about graduating. 3.David Alders was the guest speaker at the graduation ceremony.

Senior Scholarship Assembly

The students who received $2,000 or more in scholarships were front row: Michelle Reid, Shan Lathan, Sarah Triana, Cheryl Cammack, Laura Redard, Elizabeth Richman. Second row: Stephen Saunders, Tri Thomson, Brenda Lucas, Jennifer Dickerson, Leslie Armsworth, Nicole Hurzeler, David Mann, Jessica Vandrovec, Jennifer Varner, Frances Devine, Keri Brown. Back row: Deron Wood and Jeff Rambin.

Jennifer Dickerson receives one of her scholarships.

Dr. Carol Voigtel, senior counselor, presents a scholarship to Leslie Armsworth.

Celebration '87...

As graduation drew nearer, so did the first annual "Project Graduation" or "Celebration '87." It was an all-night party put together by many parents divided into committees. All their hard work paid off May 29 when "Celebration '87" was declared a big success.

Elaborate prizes were the highlight of the evening. Among these prizes were two $500 cash awards, a waterbed, a trip for two to Padre Island and a 1982 Chevrolet Cavalier. Door prizes were also given away throughout the evening. Senior William Hall was the winner of the car.

The festivities began at 11 p.m. in SFA's HPE complex. Activities included a continuous dance and casino, as well as sporting events. There were also movies shown during the night. Food was available throughout the night with breakfast being served at 5 a.m.

The committees worked hard to make "Celebration '87" a big success. It was a final farewell to the seniors of 1987. It is hoped that this year's "Project Graduation" will set a precedent for the future graduating classes at NHS.

A Big Success!

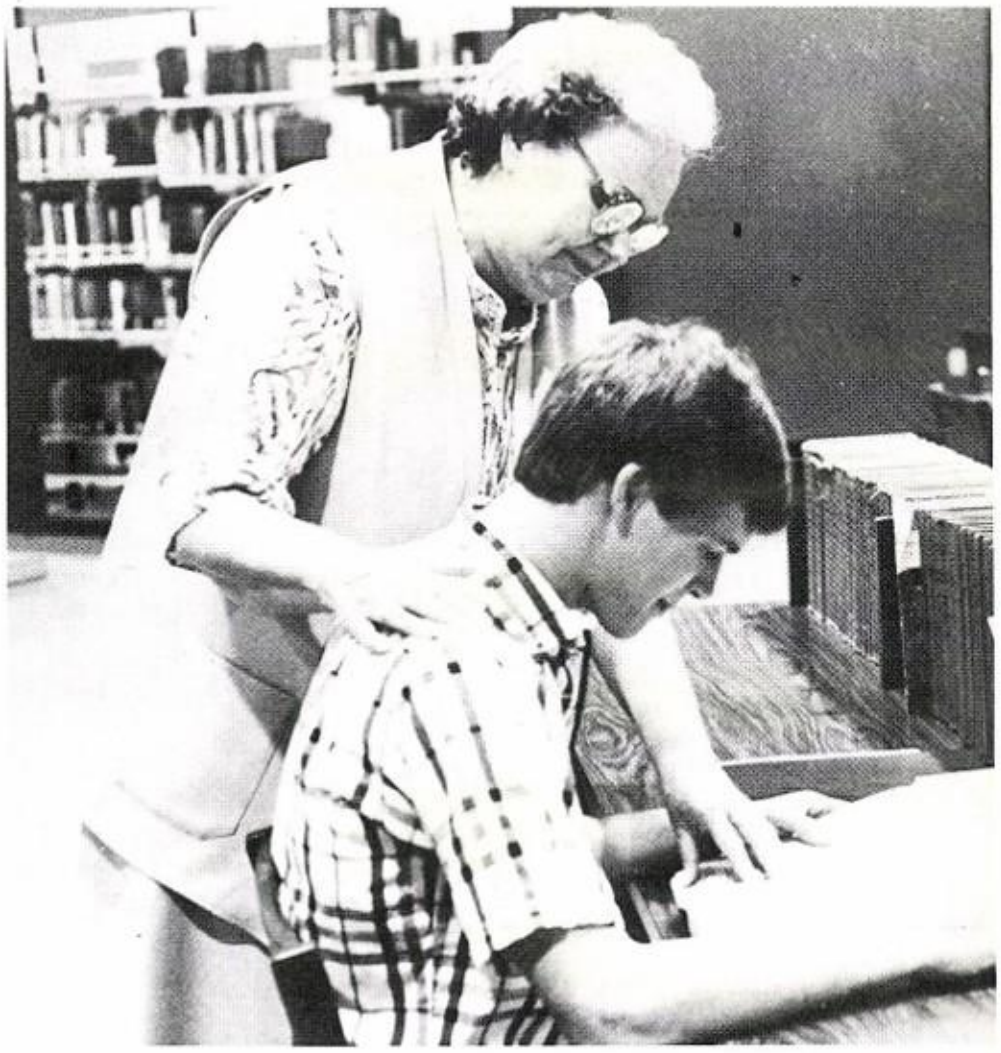
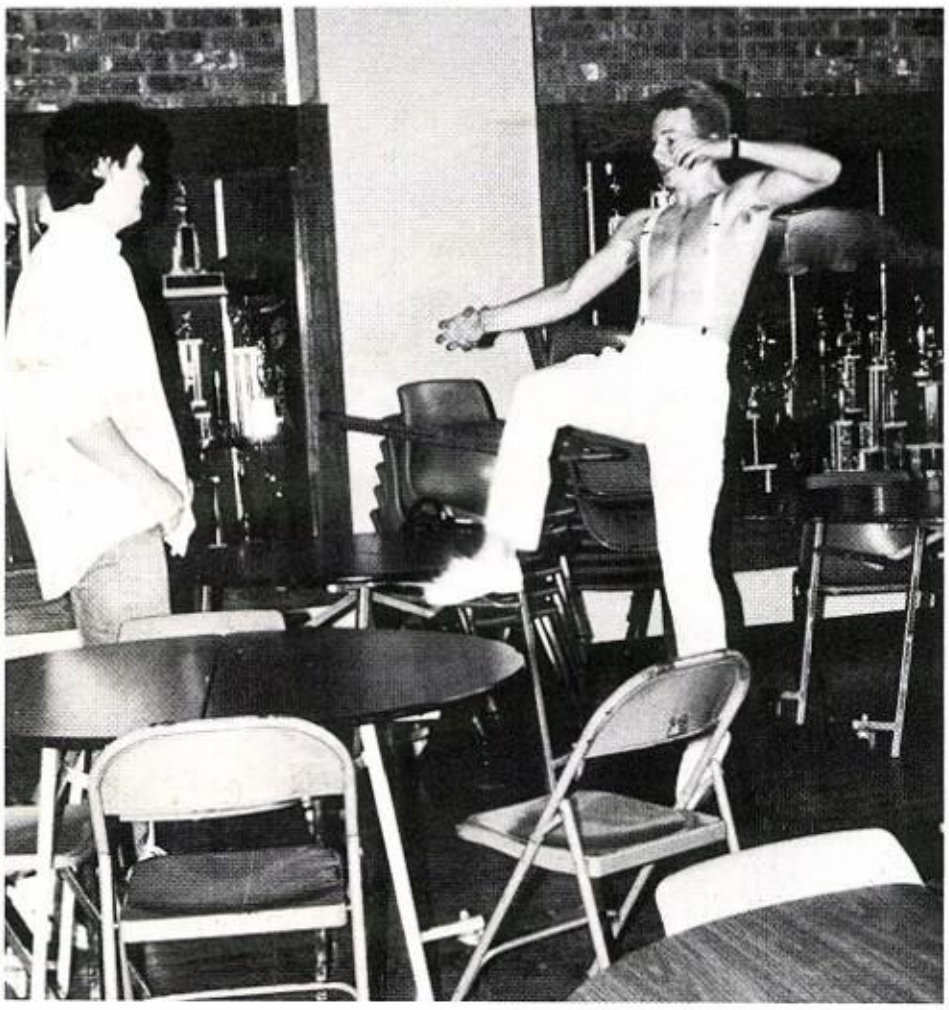
Miss King Retires

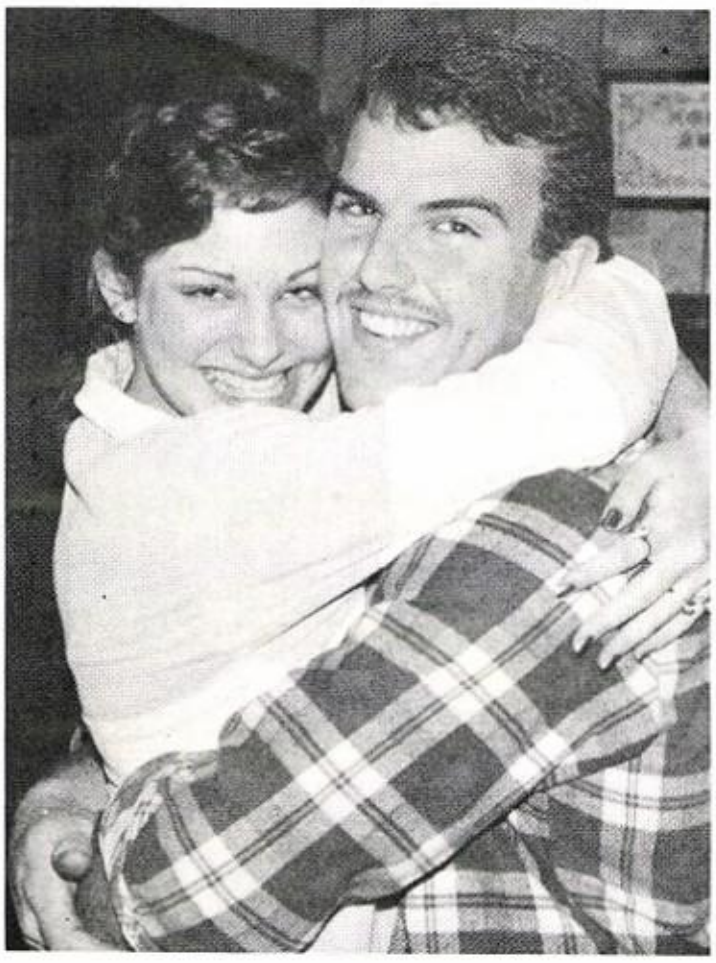
This is the last year for Miss Eddie Mae King to serve as NHS' librarian. She will be retiring after 41 years of service to NISD. Miss King is looking forward to retirement but says, "I will miss the students, faculty, and staff." Miss King has been opening the library doors at 7:30 a.m. for the past 25 years. Her average work-day ended around 4:00 p.m., long after most students had gone home for the day. Miss King was born in Woden and has lived in Nacogdoches county ever since. She even attended NHS. She taught school at Nettie Marshall Elementary for 18 years before becoming a librarian. After retiring, Miss King plans to spend her time doing geneology work. She loves to read, and she belongs to several organizations. She is president of the local PTA, TSTA, and the Delta Kappa Sigma Chapter. She is the PTA district vice-president and CTA district chairman. Miss King's hard work and assistance to students and teachers alike will be greatly missed.

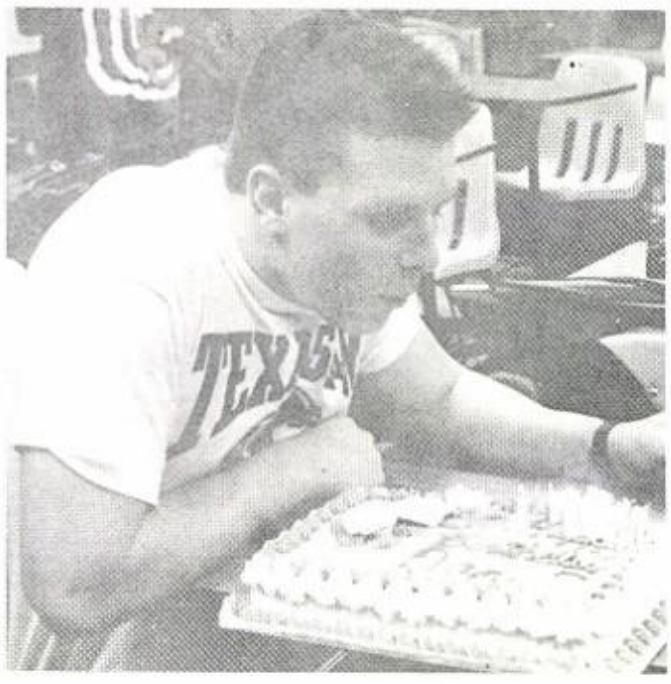


Miss. King has had many duties as NHS librarian. She typed cards for the card catalog, kept up the inventory for all the audio visual equipment and most importantly assisted many students in their research for various classes.

Good Times at NHS







1. Andrew Conner smiles as he mops the cafeteria. He and several other sophomore boys were being punished for throwing food. 2.Chad Byers watches as Bryan Davis does his karate tricks. They too were cleaning the cafeteria as punishment. 3. Mandy Poe and Reece Nichols enjoy each other's company. 4. Leslie Armsworth enjoys a day in the sun. 5. Jerry Smotherman practices for the musical "South Pacific." 6. Dan Debenport wishes himself a happy birthday.

Join The Few

Magic's made of love and dreams,
So you should have no cause to grieve.
From kisses up to unicorns,
There are a few who still believe.
Some people mock belief in elves
Or magic in a fairy ring,
But soon they sadly realize
They don's believe in anything.
I won't believe they don't exist.
You can't convince me that they're gone,
For fairies dress the butterflies
And help inspire the robin's song.
Don't let the magic fade like dew
Or join with those who sit and mourn.
Come join the hopeful, join the few
Who still believe in unicorns.

We'll Never Be This Way Again

We'll never be this way again,
For time disrupts togetherness.
We'll never have today again.
Tomorrow, we can only guess.
We may forget the love we share.
For this, we have ourselves to blame.
Let s cling to comfort, hope, and prayer
In circles 'round a candle flame.
We fantasized the year away,
But years are shorter than they seem.
We drew much closer every day,
But now we follow separate dreams.
So think of me when we're apart.
We'll never have today again,
So keep it always in your heart.

Book N Editor

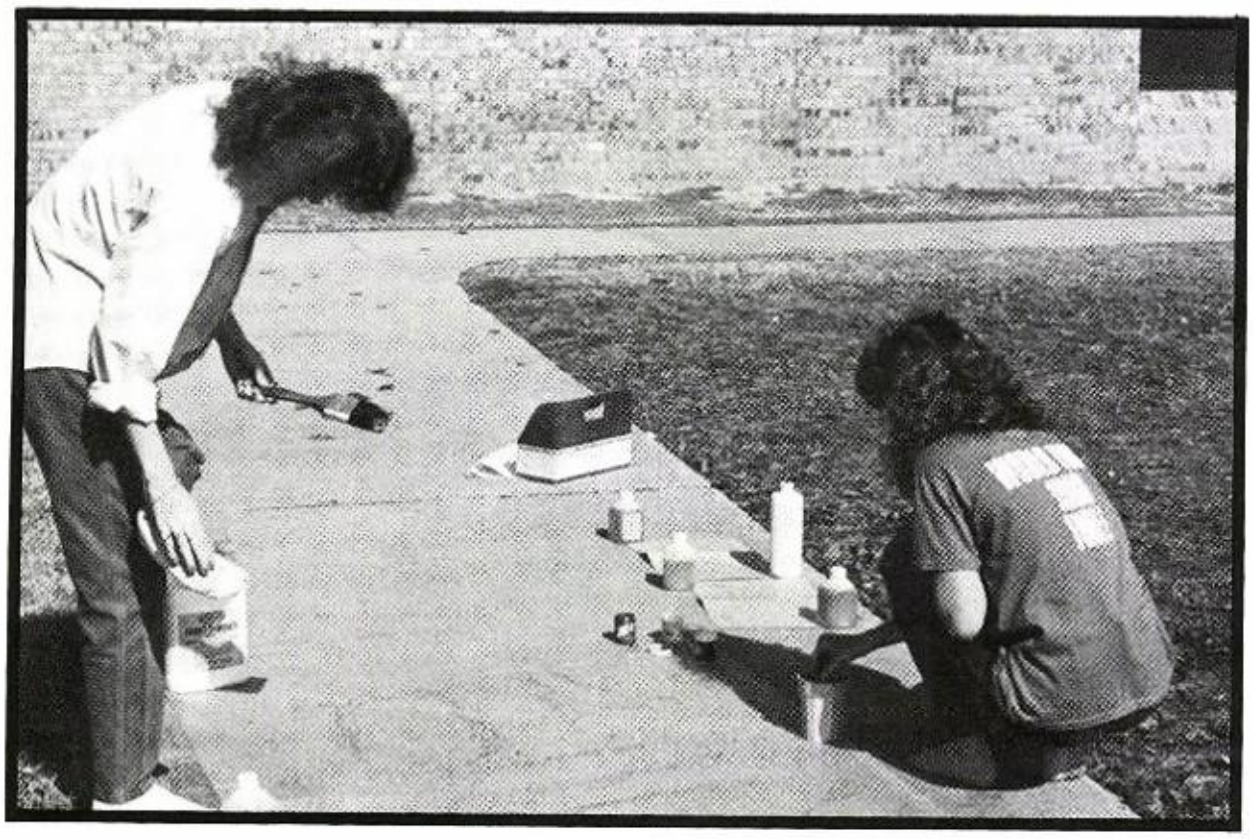
Lori Ann Graves

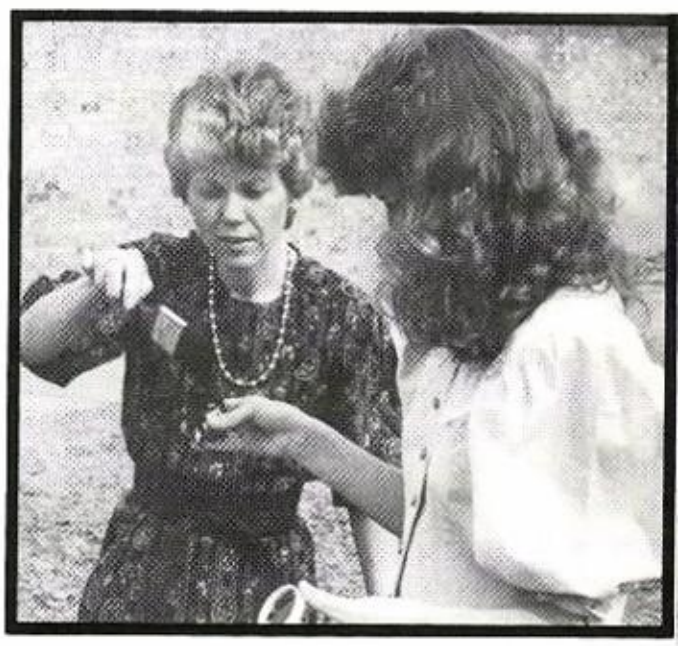
As editor it is a "big relief" that the Book N staff and I are able to present to you Book N 1987 "Painting Memories." I hope that in our long hours of hard work we were able to capture the memories most memorable to each and every one of you. "Painting Memories" is a theme that was derived from the many ideas of each staff member. Through our numerous brain storms the Book N staff and I have tried to incorporate into this book the school spirit as well as capture all the unforgettable times for the whole student body.

I would like to express my appreciation to Student Council and their advisor Mrs.Claudette Brown, Hardy Meredith, Graphic Communications Group, the student body, faculty, members of the Nacogdoches commumity, and Dennis Clark our Taylor Representative for all their time, support and assistance in making this year's publication a big success. A very special thank you goes out to my staff for all their hard work and long hours even at the most unbearable times. Also to my advisor, Ms. Connie Hawkins, for a crazy and challenging year. We have been through three Book N publications together — it has been fun, and you have really taught me a lot. You have been a great advisor as well as a wonderful friend to the entire staff. A final and most important thank you goes to my family for all their support and patience and for putting up with my "difficult moods" during those never ending annual deadlines. You've been really great throughout my high school years.

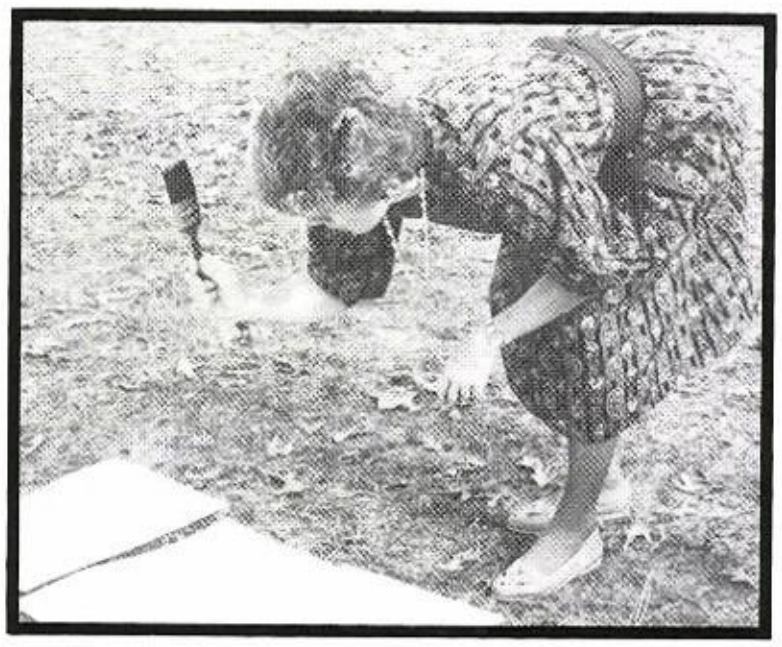
It has been great to be a part of this school and the Book N. Thank you for making the 1986-87 school year one that will forever remain in my memory.

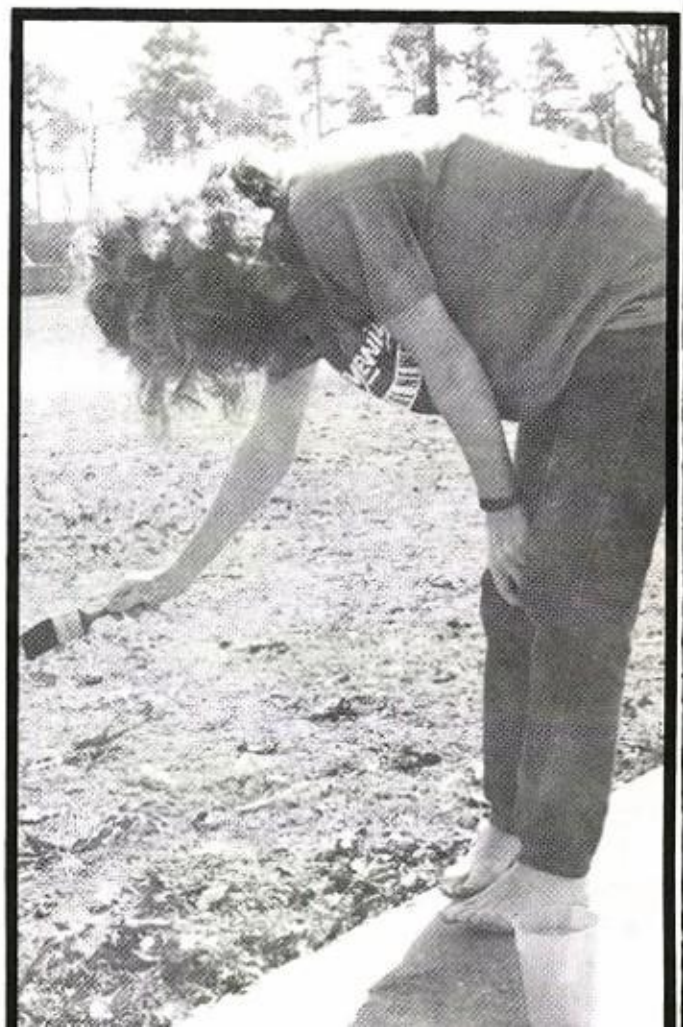
Preparing 1986-87 Book N



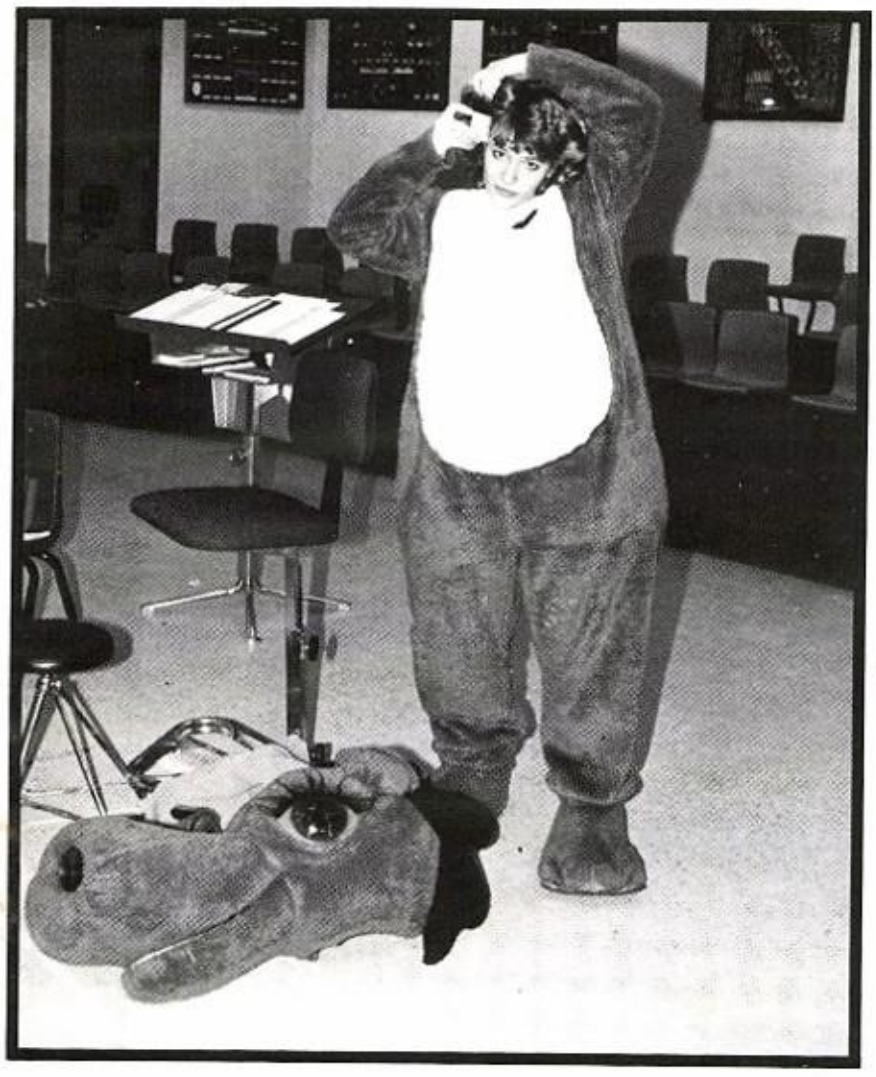


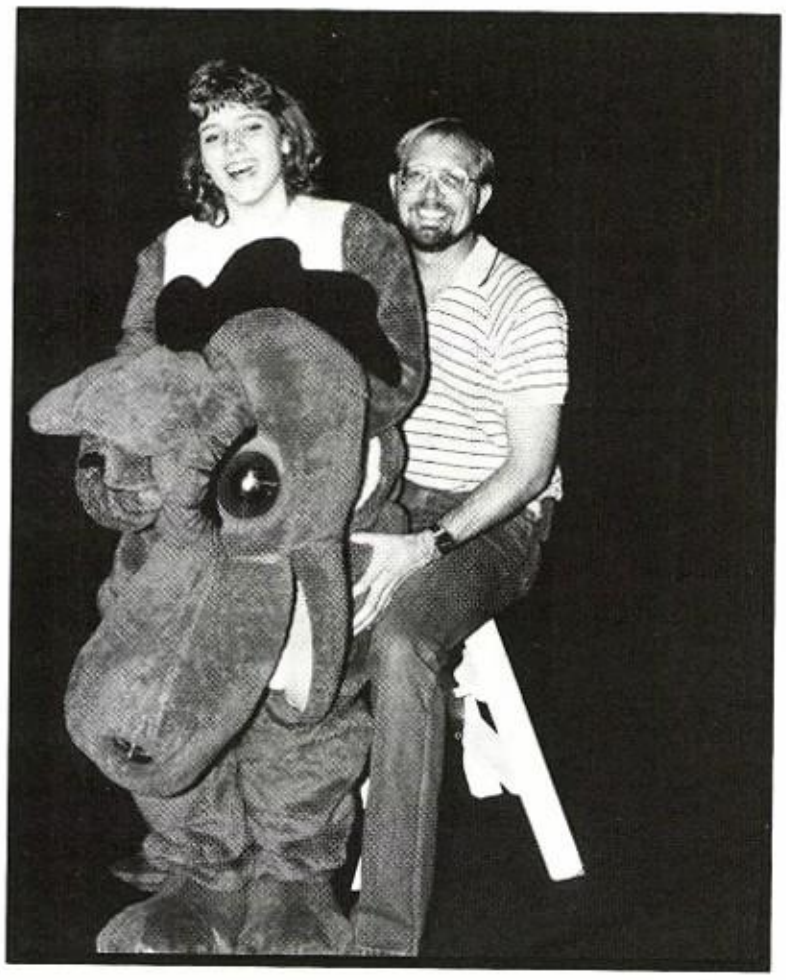
The preparation for the 1986-87 Book N was very messy — as you can see. Between advisor Connie Hawkins, Debbie Cain and editor Lori Graves they figured out that there is a lot more to splattering paint than meets the eye. The idea for the cover was originated from the entire staff and designed by advisor Connie Hawkins and editor Lori Graves. The writing on the cover was air brushed by Al Armstrong of Graphic Communications Group. We all hope that this year's publication will help "paint" some memories of your 1986-87 school year.





"Thanks" Duke





Book N staff dedicates this page to Wendy Garrett who played the role of "Duke" during the 1986-87 school year. She has definitely been a big asset to the development and production of the 1986-87 Book N. Thank you so much for all your time and patience — you were a big help! Also we would like to thank Hardy Meredith, Daily Sentinel photographer, for helping take the pictures for the cover and division pages. The staff really appreciates both of you.
